Anoka County and Vikings Partner for Stadium Solution

New Vikings owner Zygi Wilf has stepped up discussions and exploration of a new football stadium in Anoka County. The Vikings expect to develop and bring forward project details, including related real estate development and a public-private financing formula, to the 2006 legislative session where debate will occur on the Vikings/Anoka County stadium.

Wilf is optimistic about the prospects of a new football stadium in Anoka County and he brings a new approach to the long-standing problem. Vikings ownership has committed to a partnership with Anoka County and are prepared to invest in a solution by acquiring property at this very viable stadium site. The Wilf family and the entire ownership group bring expertise and vast experience developing successful real estate projects. The ownership shares the vision of Anoka County leaders that this new football stadium will be part of a vibrant, mixed-use real estate development that will serve as Minnesota's and the upper Midwest's destination for Vikings football.

Along with investing in the community through the Wilf Family Foundation and the Vikings' charitable efforts, the new owners also plan to contribute to Minnesota's economy and job growth through investment and development of real estate projects outside of the stadium effort.

"I am optimistic that, together with Anoka County, state leaders and all Minnesotans, we will bring forward a world class venue very soon," owner Zygi Wilf said. Owners and team officials will visit other NFL cities who have solved their stadium problems to learn and apply the best ideas from these facilities. The Vikings want to ensure they create a world class facility and event center that will serve fans, sponsors and the community for generations to come.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The Vikings continue to urge our fans and supporters to learn more about the football stadium issue and register your support with elected officials to take action and find a solution. For more information on the Vikings stadium campaign – and to find out how you can help – visit www.vikings.com.

Vikings fans long-standing tradition of tailgating and creating an exciting game day atmosphere will benefit from a new stadium that gives fans the experience they deserve while cheering on their home team.

Viking Children's Fund

While there have been many changes in the Vikings since our inception in 1961, one thing has remained constant and that's the support the organization has given to the community. The Vikings are proud of the dynamic growth and development of our Viking Children's Fund. Its mission is to rally the resources of the Vikings, the corporate community and our fans in support of the many needs of children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest. Since 1978, over $7.0 million has been raised. Over $3.95 has been allocated to research at the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics.

Funding support to the University of Minnesota Pediatric faculty has been critical in bridging faculty research from early training years to successful competition for federal research grants. This child health research has seen the development of methods to save the lives of children through improved lung support, new cancer treatments, discovery of mechanisms causing chronic kidney disease and genetic disorders of children. Without the support of the Viking Children's Fund, the Department of Pediatrics would not have achieved a top 10 ranking in federal research grant awards this year.

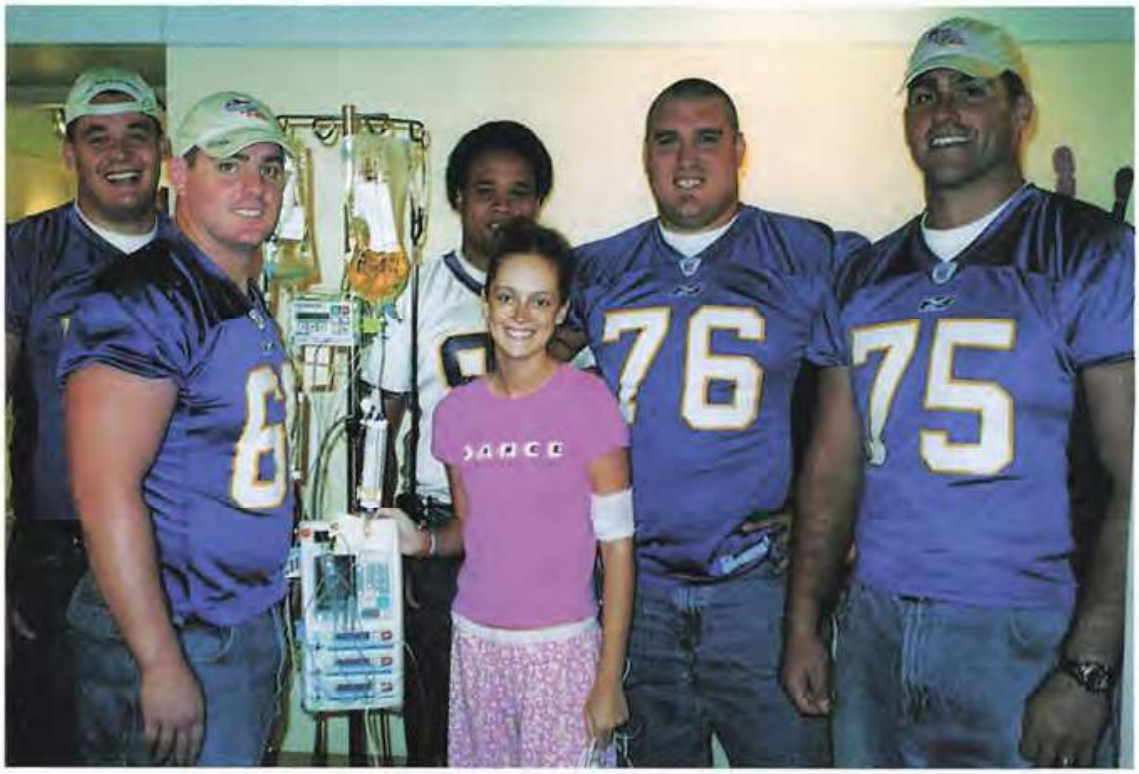
The Viking Children's Fund fundraising success is attributed to the strong dedication of Vikings fans, players, coaches, alumni, volunteers and staff. Thank you for your support.

VIKING CHILDREN'S FUND FACTS AND FIGURES

*The University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics has been awarded over $3.95 million to support research fighting childhood diseases.

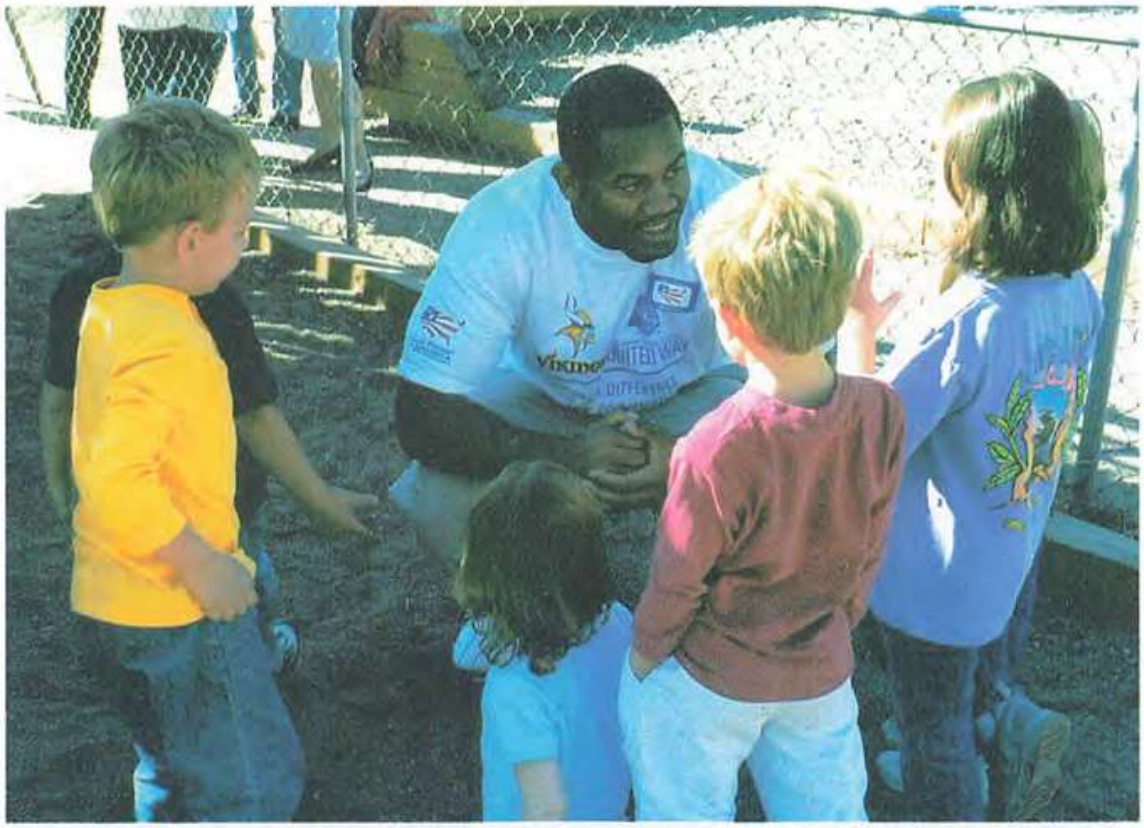
*The Viking Children's Fund supported over 50 organizations in 2004.

*The Viking Children's Fund has supported over 300 child-related organizations across Vikings country since beginning in 1978.



Vikings Pro Bowler Matt Birk, the team's 2002-04 Community Man of the Year, speaks to youngsters at the annual Mike Tice/United Way Youth Football Day.

The annual training camp scrimmages and autograph sessions draw big crowds in Mankato and benefit the VCF.



Providing a bright future for kids in the Upper Midwest is the goal of the Viking Children's Fund. Through community outreach programs, the VCF has helped over 300 child-related oranizations since its beginnning in 1978.

Vikings in the Community

THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS "ON THE FIELD AND IN THE COMMUNITY – YOUR SPECIAL TEAM"

The Minnesota Vikings are more than a football team. The coaches, players and staff are your neighbors. Their wives or husbands may be your co-workers. Their children attend school with your children. The Vikings are a part of our community. Many schools, hospital charities and civic groups have been impacted by player involvement, staff participation and family volunteerism.

The Vikings organization is your neighbor too, as a corporate citizen actively involved in policy and service to Minnesota. The Vikings community relations department and Viking Children's Fund handle a broad range of requests including player appearances, in-kind donations, partnering with non-profit groups on fundraisers, the production of public service announcements and team philanthropy. Since its inception in 1978, the VCF has donated more than $3.75 million to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In addition, the VCF has maintained a commitment to youth and families by distributing funds toward youth development, family services and education support- a total of $6.5 million given back to our community.

Executives

Zygi Wilf
Owner/Chairman

Following unanimous approval of his fellow NFL owners, Zygi Wilf realized a life-long dream and brought his family into the National Football League on May 25, 2005.

Wilf leads an ownership group that closely mirrors the structure that has led the Wilf family to national prominence in their previous business ventures with Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail and private residential development.

Joining Wilf in the beginning of a new era in Minnesota Vikings football are brother Mark, cousin Leonard and several associates from outside the family. The 45th season of Vikings football promises to be one of the most exciting in franchise history and the beginning of a unique structure that will connect the ownership and football team as never before.

The family atmosphere that develops over the course of an NFL season, relying on the contributions of every player for the success of the team, will match the goals and structure the Wilf family has followed for generations. "We recognize the similarities between a family and a team," Wilf said. "We have placed a priority on teamwork in our family and now want to instill a family atmosphere in our team. The NFL season is long and emotional, having that family level of trust and commitment is key to reaching the goals we all share."

The journey for Wilf from avid New York Giants fan sitting in the bleachers of Yankee Stadium in the 1960's to taking over the leadership of one of the NFL's proudest franchises has been one marked by bold and well-researched business decisions, commitment to family and employees and a dedication to community. Throughout the Wilf family's rise to prominence in real estate development, the consistent focus on philanthropy and never losing touch with family roots has been a foundation and philosophy.

The modern NFL is the most competitive it has ever been and a challenge to every franchise that begins the season with the ultimate goal of a Super Bowl title. The Wilf family brings a dedication to taking the Vikings to the pinnacle of the game and provide the legions of fans worldwide with a team that is competitive on the field of play and involved in the community at large.

The Wilfs inherit a team that has made dramatic strides in gaining a competitive edge in recent seasons and is coming off a 2004 season that saw the Vikings in the NFL's elite eight, advancing to the Divisional Round of the NFC Playoffs following a convincing Wild Card Round victory over the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in the first-ever meeting between the border rivals in post-season play. The Vikings aggressive off-season trade and free agency moves entering the 2005 season have the team poised for a strong push deeper into the playoffs and pursuit of the elusive Lombardi Trophy.

The Wilf family has stayed close to their roots, donating generously to heart-felt causes including the New Holocaust History Museum in Israel, New York City's Yeshiva University and numerous community and civic organizations in and around their New Jersey homes.

Wilf, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth Wilf, emigrated with his parents to the United States from Europe in the early 1950s and settled in New Jersey. Zygi attended nearby Fairleigh Dickinson University, earning a bachelor's degree in economics and later graduated from New York Law School in Manhattan.

Wilf, 55, and wife, Audrey, have four children.

Vikings Owner/Chairman Zygi Wilf toured the Winter Park facilities with Head Coach Mike Tice and met with 2005 free agency priority Darren Sharper just days after purchasing the Vikings.

Mark Wilf
Owner/President

The strong family ties that have defined the Wilf's businesses over the past 50 years carry to the family's newest venture into the National Football League. Joining principal owner Zygi Wilf is his younger brother, Mark.

Another lifelong fan of the NFL, Mark brings the same passion and desire to succeed in the Wilf's newest venture as his elder sibling. Throughout their professional lives, the brothers have worked tirelessly to involve everyone associated in their businesses as a member of the family. The Minnesota Vikings are the latest extension of the family model and one that is especially close to the family's heart as the opportunity to be actively engaged in the game they grew up passionately following.

Wilf has been actively involved with the Wilf family's Garden Homes Development enterprises and has served as a principal in the family business.

The Wilf family enters the NFL with a franchise that has a rich history and a wide-ranging fan base. The Vikings celebrate the 45th season of competition in 2005 after making a return to the playoffs in 2004 after a three-year absence. The team features a core of standout players that were drafted and groomed in the Vikings system. Four-time Pro Bowler Matt Birk, three-time Pro Bowler Daunte Culpepper and 1st-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowler Kevin Williams form the nucleus of a team that advanced to the Divisional Round of the 2004 NFL playoffs. The 2004 season was highlighted by an upset NFC Wild Card playoff victory over border rival Green Bay at Lambeau Field in the only meeting between the teams in playoff action. The Vikings approached the 2005 off-season with an increased emphasis on quality free agent acquisitions and continued strong drafting.

A long-time fan of college and professional football, Wilf is no stranger to the game or the thrill of competition. During his collegiate years, Mark served as the radio voice of Princeton Tigers football and basketball.

Wilf earned his bachelor's degree from Princeton University and later graduated from the New York University School of Law.

Wilf, 43, and wife, Jane, have four children. The couple is actively involved in several causes close to the heart of the Wilf family. Mark serves as the 2005 National Campaign Chair of United Jewish Communities/UJA. The couple works closely with Yad Vashem, The Holocaust Martyr's and Heroes' Remembrance Authority.

Vikings Owner/President Mark Wilf met golfers at the annual Minnesota Vikings Golf Tournament on June 15, 2005, a popular annual fundraiser for the Viking Children's Fund. The Wilf Family made a donation to the VCF at the tournament, the first donation to the Fund since the family took ownership of the Vikings the day before.

Leonard Wilf
Owner/Vice Chairman

Leonard Wilf will join cousins Zygi and Mark Wilf with the Vikings ownership group serving as Vice Chairman of the team.

Wilf is President of the family-owned Garden Homes Development, a nationwide leader in retail and private residential development.

Wilf earned his bachelor's degree, Cum Laude, from Boston University. Following his undergraduate work, Wilf graduated with a law degree from Georgetown University. During his tenure at Georgetown Wilf was editor of the Georgetown Law Review. Wilf went on to receive a Master of Law in taxation from New York University.

Active with several professional and civic groups, Wilf is Vice Chairman on the Board of Trustees of NYU and the NYU Law School. He is a member of the New Jersey, New York and American Bar Associations. He is an involved member of the Urban Land Institute, New York Athletic Club and Friars Club.

Wilf and his wife, Beth, have four children and are active members of the community through the Central Park Conservancy and Metropolitan Opera. Wilf was appointed by President Clinton to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Council in January 1997 and spearheaded the construction of the Metrowest Campus of UJA-Federation in East Hanover, NJ. He resides in New York City.

A 45-Season Tradition

The 2005 season will mark the 45th season of on-field competition for the Minnesota Vikings. The proud tradition of the Vikings franchise started from humble roots and evolved into one of the most popular teams in the National Football League and professional sports. The Vikings have become part of the fabric of life in Minnesota and the Upper Midwest.

"We are excited to be joining the Vikings organization in this monumental season," said Vikings Owner/Chairman Zygi Wilf. "The team has a history of success that we will continue to build upon and give our fans the best possible team week in and week out."

The following excerpt explains the early stages of the Vikings franchise as chronicled in the Minnesota Vikings 1961 Press, Radio, TV Guide.

Club History

Twin Cities football enthusiasts began their quest for professional football some 12 years ago, and it was on January 28, 1960, that their efforts were culminated with the announcement – from Miami, Florida, where the National Football League owners were in session- that Minnesota was being granted a franchise for 1961.

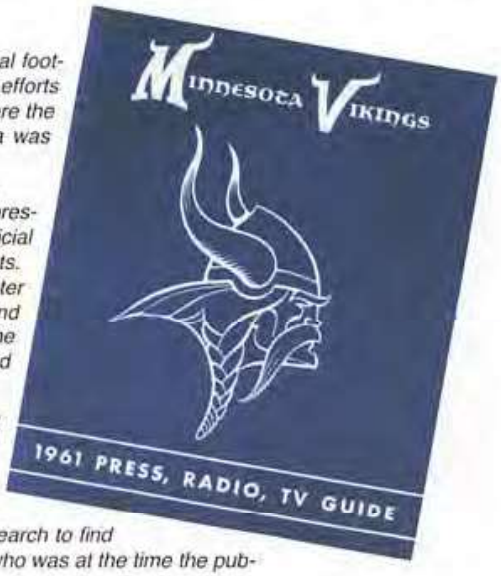
At the same meeting, Dallas was accepted to start play in 1960.

The franchise was granted just ten days after E. William Boyer, president of the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce, had made an official presentation to the league on behalf of statewide Minnesota interests.

Besides Boyer in the founding group were: Max Winter, promoter and restaurateur, H.P. Skoglund, president of North American Life and Casualty Company; Ole Haugsrud, Duluth businessman, and the Northwest Publications, Inc., publishers of the St. Paul Dispatch and Pioneer Press, through its president, Bernard H. Ridder. Jr.

They decided to start with an original outlay of one million dollars, of which the Minneapolis sources would put up $600,000; St. Paul $300,000 and Duluth, representing the rest of the state $100,000.

Upon acquiring a franchise, the group hired Joe Thomas, former scout with the Los Angeles Rams, to scout the country in preparation for the 1961 draft meeting, and went on a nationwide search to find a general manager. This ended with the selection of Bert E. Rose, who was at the time the public relations director for the Rams.



Vikings Ownership Partners

Reggie Fowler

Reggie Fowler is the owner of Spiral, Inc., a company that has holdings in agriculture, aviation, banking, entertainment, manufacturing and real estate. Fowler holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Wyoming and attended graduate school at Arizona State University. Fowler played football at Wyoming and later continued his football career with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers. He resides in Phoenix, AZ.

Alan Landis

Alan Landis has achieved acclaim in the business world and the philanthropic community through his visionary thinking in each area. As founder and chairman of The Landis Group, he has put his stamp on the land development industry with a pair of landmarks, the Princeton Landmark Carnegie Center and Tower Center Office and Hotel Complex. A graduate of New York University, Landis holds a bachelor's degree in accounting. He is active in causes ranging from the National Prevent Child Abuse organization to the Foundation for Fighting Blindness. Alan and wife, Linda, have a son, Scott, and daughter, Dana. The couple resides in New York City.

David Mandelbaum

David Mandelbaum has served as General Partner of Interstate Properties since 1968, a trustee of Vornado Realty since 1979 and Director of Alexander's, Inc. since 1995. Mandelbaum has been a member of the law firm Mandelbaum & Mandelbaum, P.A. since 1967 and holds a law degree from Harvard. He earned his undergraduate degree at Princeton University. Mandelbaum and wife, Karen, have been married over 40 years. The couple has four sons, Richard, Michael, Jeffrey and Jonathan and resides in Livingston, NJ.

Lester Bagley
V.P. of Public Affairs & Stadium Development

Lester Bagley brings more than two decades of experience in the public affairs arena and serves the Vikings in 2005 as Vice President of Public Affairs and Stadium Development.

Bagley has worked for the team as a public affairs consultant since 2000, serving as point person on stadium advocacy efforts.

In his current role Bagley continues to lead Vikings stadium development projects and oversees the team's community relations, public relations, and charitable giving.

Bagley's experience at the state capitol, background with key Minnesota business and community audiences and relationships with state government leaders make him a valuable resource to the Vikings stadium drive and to the Vikings management team.

Previously, Bagley operated Bagley Public Affairs from 1999-2005. The Minneapolis firm specialized in issues management, public relations and public affairs.

From 1993-99 Bagley served as associate director of the Minnesota Business Partnership, a public policy organization comprised of the chief executive officers of 100 of Minnesota's largest companies. He previously spent five years working in public affairs and public relations in Washington, D.C.

A native of Barron, WI, Bagley began college at the University of Minnesota before transferring to the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) where he earned a bachelor's degree in political science. He served as a White House intern during his undergraduate days. Bagley serves on the board of Athletes Committed to Educating Students (ACES) and has served on the boards of the Minnesota Government Relations Council and the Courage Center.

Bagley's wife, Wendy, who has a bachelor's degree from the College of St. Catherine, has served on the staffs of three successive Minnesota governors. The couple resides with their son, Michael, in Minneapolis.

Rob Brzezinski
Vice President of Football Operations

Rob Brzezinski enters his seventh season with the Vikings and 13th in the NFL in 2005. He was promoted to his current position as Vice President of Football Operations in April 2002 after spending his first three seasons with the Vikings serving the team as the Director (1999-2000) and Vice President (2001) of Football Administration.

In his current role, Brzezinski is primarily responsible for personnel decisions related to the Vikings roster, the player personnel department, including pro and college scouting, management and strategic planning of the salary cap, negotiation of player contracts, football administration, team operations, medical and training staff, equipment, video, and player development. He has also represented the Vikings at the league meetings.

Under Brzezinski's leadership the Vikings have eliminated their salary cap deficit and have transformed their salary cap position into a long-term competitive advantage. In 2002, along with then newly named Head Coach Mike Tice, a plan was constructed to return the Vikings to long-term on-field competitive excellence. Since 2002, nearly 95% of the team has been overhauled, including 100% of the defense. Improvements to the roster have occurred through the draft, free agency, trades, and the waiver system. Brzezinski was instrumental in overhauling the Vikings defense for the upcoming 2005 season.

Several of the Vikings core players have been signed for the future including Pro Bowl quarterback Daunte Culpepper, who signed to a 10 year contract extension in May 2003.

From a technological and process standpoint, the Vikings revolutionized their pro scouting, college scouting and football administration departments in 2003. The benefits of the newly revamped college scouting and draft process paid off quickly in the 2003 draft. First-round pick Kevin Williams was a consensus All-Rookie honoree in 2003 who climbed to 1st-Team All-Pro status and was a Pro Bowl starter in only his second season. Third-round pick Nate Burleson had over 1,000 receiving yards and 9 receiving touchdowns as a second-year player and developed into one of the bright young stars in the NFL. The Vikings have been widely recognized for producing high quality drafts in 2003, 2004, and 2005.

Brzezinski is a member of the NFL Management Council's Club Services Committee, which has developed new technology and systems for player contract reporting, salary cap management and information management. In 2004 Brzezinski was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

Brzezinski spent the previous six seasons (1993-98) with the Miami Dolphins where he advanced to the position of Staff Counsel/Salary Cap. He has been involved with teams that have finished .500 or better in 10 of his 12 seasons in the NFL and have made the playoffs seven times. During the salary cap era of the NFL (1994-present), both the Dolphins and Vikings are among the NFL elite in winning percentage and playoff appearances.

In Miami, Brzezinski assisted in managing business affairs, which included salary cap administration, player contract negotiations, operations and legal affairs. In his tenure, the Dolphins compiled a 55-41 (.573) regular-season record and made the playoffs four times.

Brzezinski earned degrees from Nova Southeastern University in Fort Lauderdale, a Juris Doctorate in 1995 and a Bachelor of Science in education in 1992. In addition, Brzezinski is a member of the Florida Bar. Brzezinski and his wife, Leah, who has earned a doctoral degree in education, have a son, Ki, a daughter, Grace, and reside in Edina. Brzezinski and his wife, Leah, are very active in the community raising money and awareness for adoption-related causes.

Steve LaCroix
Vice President of Sales & Marketing

Steve LaCroix enters his fifth season with the Vikings in 2005, as the team's Vice President of Sales and Marketing. LaCroix oversees all aspects of Vikings generated revenues, including corporate sales, sponsorships, media sales, ticket sales, suite sales and hospitality. In addition, LaCroix manages the team's marketing partnerships, radio and television broadcasting, website, merchandise and e-commerce operations, community and special events, team marketing, advertising, promotions and game day activities.

In each of his four seasons with the Vikings, LaCroix has led the team to record setting sales revenues. In 2004, the Vikings continued their sellout streak, reaching a total of 74 straight home games. In addition, he has directed several new sales and marketing initiatives, including bringing radio and television broadcast rights in-house, a live weekly pre-game television program "Vikings GameDay", the opening of the team's first official retail store "Vikings Locker Room", a full redesign of vikings.com and the development of a regional mobile marketing program. LaCroix also serves on the Steering Committee of the National Sports Forum, the sports industry's leading annual conference. In 2005 LaCroix was invited to participate in the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business, a program developed by the NFL to promote development of leaders within the League.

LaCroix's charitable involvement includes serving as Treasurer of the Viking Children's Fund, which has raised over $6.8 million since 1978 benefiting children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest, including the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. LaCroix also serves on the Board of Directors of Hunger Related Events, which has raised several million dollars for hunger related organizations through the creation of Taste of the NFL as an annual event at the Super Bowl and in many NFL cities.

Prior to joining the Vikings, LaCroix worked as the Director of Sponsorship Sales for Pacers Sports and Entertainment in Indianapolis, IN from 1999-00. His main responsibilities included overseeing the corporate sales efforts for the National Basketball Association's Indiana Pacers, the WNBA's Indiana Fever and other sports and entertainment events held at Conseco Fieldhouse, for which he negotiated the naming rights deal.

During LaCroix's tenure with Pacers Sports and Entertainment, which began in 1991 as a sales representative, the organization saw dramatic increases in sponsorship, ticket sales and other major corporate partnerships.

LaCroix earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Iowa and his master's at Western Illinois University. Steve and wife Sue, who holds her bachelor's degree in nursing from the University of Iowa, have two children, Katie and Alex. The LaCroix family resides in Minnetonka.

Steve Poppen
Vice President of Finance

Steve Poppen begins his seventh season with the Vikings in 2005. He joined the team in 1999 as Director of Finance and was promoted the following season to Vice President of Finance. A native of Watertown, SD, Poppen spent the previous eight years before joining the Vikings in the business assurance group of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP in Kansas City.

Poppen is responsible for all financial aspects of the team including business planning, budgeting, day-to-day financial and administrative operations, human resources, information technology, facilities, assisting with stadium financing and works as a team liaison with the Metropolitan Sports Facilities Commission.

Poppen received his B.A. in accounting from Evangel University in Springfield, MO in 1991. An active member of his community, Poppen serves as the treasurer and on the executive committee of the Minnesota Teen Challenge. Teen Challenge is a drug and alcohol rehabilitation program for Minnesota adults and teens. Poppen also serves on the board of the Minneapolis Downtown Council, an organization promoting business development in downtown Minneapolis.

Poppen and his wife Christy, who holds a bachelor's degree in elementary education from Evangel, have four children, Natalie, Andrew, Nathan and Avery. The Poppen family resides in Chanhassen.

Kevin Warren
V.P. of Operations & Legal Counsel

The Vikings ownership under the Wilf family immediately tapped the resources of an individual with a unique blend of talents and experience when Kevin Warren joined the organization.

Warren enters his seventh season in the NFL and his first with the Vikings in 2005.

Warren will serve as the Vikings' Vice President of Operations and Legal Counsel with responsibility for legal affairs for both the team and the Vikings' charitable entity (Viking Children's Fund), special projects and strategic planning while also serving as the Vikings liaison with the NFL.

Warren spent the 2001-02 seasons with the Detroit Lions as Senior V.P. of Business Operations/General Counsel. Prior to joining the Vikings' NFC North rivals in Detroit, Warren worked from 1997-2001 with the St. Louis Rams, including the Rams' Super Bowl XXXIV championship over the Tennessee Titans. During his tenure with St. Louis, Warren served as V.P. of Player Programs/Football Legal Counsel from 1997-2000 before being promoted to V. P. of Football Administration in 2001.

Warren's first exposure to sports law came when he was with an Overland Park, KS, firm that specialized in representing universities charged with NCAA violations.

Warren's involvement in athletics helped pave the way for his future career. As a freshman on the University of Pennsylvania basketball team, Warren was part of the Quakers' Ivy League championship team in 1982. A native of Tempe, AZ, Warren transferred to Grand Canyon University in Phoenix to complete his undergraduate work. While at Grand Canyon, he excelled in the classroom and on the hardwood, earning NAIA Academic All-America.

Warren earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Grand Canyon University in 1986 and his master's degree in business administration from Arizona State University in 1988. He earned his Juris Doctorate from the Notre Dame School of Law in 1990.

Several members of Warren's family have helped fuel his lifelong passion for sports, including his father, the late Dr. Morrison Warren, Sr., who played professional football for the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1948. The senior Warren would go on to be the first African American president of a major college bowl game when he was named President of the 1982 Fiesta Bowl. Kevin has been a member of the Fiesta Bowl board of directors since January 2004. Warren's oldest brother, Morrison, Jr., was one of the first African American scholarship athletes at Stanford, playing football for the Cardinal in the early 1960s.

Warren and his wife, Greta, who holds a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism from Kansas State University, have a daughter, Peri, and a son, Powers. The Warren family resides in Greenwood, MN.

Mike Tice
Head Coach

NFL COACHING: 10th Season

VIKINGS: 10th Season

Mike Tice became the sixth head coach in the Minnesota Vikings' 44-year history on January 10, 2002. Tice has been associated with the Vikings since 1992. He played tight end from 1992-93 and 1995, coached the tight ends in 1996 and the offensive line from 1997-2001. Tice added the title of Assistant Head Coach for the 2001 season. Tice is the first Vikings head coach to have played for the team. He enters his 24th season in the NFL in 2005, spending 14 as a player and 10 in the coaching ranks.

In his 23 years being associated with the NFL, Tice has been a part of 17 winning seasons and qualified for the playoffs 12 times. In his nine seasons as an assistant and head coach with the Vikings, the team has compiled a 82-62 (.569) record, has made the playoffs six times, had six winning seasons, advanced in the playoffs five times and played in the NFC Championship Game twice. As head coach he has won the Staples Coach of the Week Award twice (at New Orleans, 12/15/02 and at Green Bay, 9/7/03), earning $10,000 in supplies for local schools.

In 2004 Tice led the Vikings to their first road playoff victory since the 1997 season when they defeated their archrival Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field in convincing fashion 31-17. Tice joined Jerry Burns as the only coaches in team history to win their playoff debuts. Second-year defensive tackle Kevin Williams was selected to the Pro Bowl and was also named first team All-Pro. Also selected to the Pro Bowl were Matt Birk and Daunte Culpepper who broke virtually every Vikings' passing record and had one of the finest seasons in NFL history by a quarterback. The Vikings set a team record for net yards gained (6,339), passing yards (4,754) and set an NFL for consecutive games with over 300 yards of offense (2002-04) with 36. The Vikings 50 touchdowns were the third most in team history.

In his second season as head coach in 2003, Tice led the Vikings to their first winning season since 2000. The Vikings six straight wins to start the season combined with three wins to finish the 2002 season marked the fourth longest (9 wins) winning streak in team history. The Vikings led the NFL in offense for the first time in their history and set a team record for yards with 6,294. The Vikings scored 416 points, the second best total in team history. The Vikings sent four players to the Pro Bowl including first-time starter Corey Chavous and starters Matt Birk and Daunte Culpepper. The Vikings 2003 draft class featured all-rookie choices Kevin Williams and Onterrio Smith. The Vikings defense led the NFC (and second in the NFL) in interceptions with 28. The squad defeated four teams (Green Bay, Seattle, Kansas City and Denver) that qualified for the playoffs. The Vikings also finished second in the NFC in turnover ratio (+11).

In his first season as head coach in 2002, Tice led the team to three straight victories to end the season on a high note. It was only the seventh time in the team's history that they had won at least their last three contests. Two of the last three wins helped knock the New Orleans Saints and the Miami Dolphins out of the playoffs. The Vikings became the first team in NFL history to win a game on a two-point conversion (vs. New Orleans 32-31). The Vikings offense was second in the NFL, only trailing the Super Bowl runner-up Oakland Raiders (6,237 to 6,192 yards). The Vikings led the NFL in rushing (2,507 yards) for the first time ever and set team records for rushing touchdowns (26), yards per carry (5.3) and first downs (350). Randy Moss had a then career-high 106 catches while Michael Bennett rushed for 1,296 yards, the second highest total in team history. Both players earned berths in the Pro Bowl.

In five seasons coaching the Vikings offensive line, Mike Tice guided five different players (Birk, Jeff Christy, Randall McDaniel, Todd Steussie, Korey Stringer) to 10 Pro Bowl appearances.

In 2001, the offensive line had five different starting lineups due to injury. Center Matt Birk made the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. Tice also was made the interim head coach for the team's regular season finale at the Baltimore Ravens. Rookie running back Michael Bennett's 682 yards rushing were the third most in team history by a Vikings rookie.

In 2000, Tice oversaw the development of Birk at the center position. Prior to the 2000 season Birk had never started a game or played center and by the end of the year he was named to the Pro Bowl. Also named to the Pro Bowl for the first time was right tackle Stringer. The offensive line helped Robert Smith break numerous team records including most rushing yards in a season (1,521) and most 100-yard games in a season (8). Smith also became the first Vikings running back to have four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The offensive line gave Daunte Culpepper enough time to throw for 3,937 yards and 33 touchdowns in his first year at the helm. Culpepper also set team season records for a quarterback for rushing yards (470) and rushing touchdowns (7).

In 1999, the offensive line made room for Smith to break a team mark for rushing yards (140) in a playoff game (vs. Dallas 1/9/00). Leroy Hoard led the club in rushing touchdowns with a career-high 10. With Hoard's 555 yards rushing, it was the first time since 1991 the Vikings had two backs go over the 500-yard mark. The Vikings offense finished the 1999 campaign ranked third in the NFL in total offense.

In '98, the offensive line paved the way for numerous NFL and Vikings records, including a League record for points scored in a season (556), and also set an NFL record for touchdown passes (41). The '98 team set Vikings records for total yards (6,264, broken in 2003) and fewest sacks allowed in a 16-game season (25). The offensive line cleared the way for Smith to top the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season with 1,187 yards on the ground. The Vikings rushed for over 100 yards in 13-of-the-18 games, including playoffs, and broke the 150-yard barrier in five contests. Three of the five starting offensive linemen (Steussie, Christy, McDaniel) in the 1999 Pro Bowl were Vikings. They became the first Vikings trio of offensive linemen ever selected to the Pro Bowl, let alone to start in the game.

In his first year coaching the offensive line in '97, Tice guided an offensive line that sent two starters to the '98 Pro Bowl, McDaniel and Steussie. The offensive line also enabled Smith to break the team record at the time for rushing yards in a season with 1,266. The Vikings offensive line was a big factor in the squad gaining a first down on 18-of-19 carries on third or fourth down with less than three yards to go in '97.

In '96, in addition to his duties as the Vikings tight ends coach, Tice conducted some drills with the offensive tackles during practices. Tice was instrumental in '96 in the development of rookie tight end Hunter Goodwin, who started the season's last six games when Minnesota went 4-2 to capture a playoff berth.

During his 14 seasons in the National Football League not only did Tice catch 107 passes for 894 yards and 11 touchdowns, but he helped block for backs that rushed for over 1,000 yards in a season 5 times, including '92, when Terry Allen set a then Vikings season record with 1,201 yards, and '83, when Seattle's Curt Warner led the AFC with 1,449 yards.

The 6-foot, 8-inch Tice joined Minnesota's coaching staff in '96 after playing 3 seasons with the Vikings (1992-93, 1995), 10 years with Seattle (1981-88, 1990-91) and a season (1989) with Washington. He started in 109-of-the-177 NFL games he played. In 2002, Tice was named the TE on Seattle's all-time team by Football News.

In '95 Tice re-signed with the Vikings on December 7 after injuries depleted the team's tight end corps. He played in the final 3 games, including a start in the regular-season finale at Cincinnati (12/24), where he caught three passes for 22 yards. Tice originally retired following the '93 season. Tice started 11 games in '93, when he caught 6 passes for 39 yards. In '92, Tice caught a career-long 34-yard touchdown pass in the final regular-season game against Green Bay (12/27).

Mike Tice is the 6th Head Coach in the history of the Vikings and the only one that played for the team.

With Seattle in '91, Tice caught a career-high 4 TDs to become the first TE in Seahawks history to lead the team in scoring receptions. In '90, Tice was released by Washington on the final cut of preseason then signed by Seattle on November 28. In '89, Tice signed with the Redskins as a Plan B free agent after catching 58 passes and starting 43-of-44 games for Seattle between '86 and '88. He posted a career-high 29 receptions for 244 yards in 16 starts in '88. In only 8 starts in '84, Tice caught 3 TDs to set a Seattle season record for scoring receptions by a TE. In '83, Tice helped the Seahawks advance to the AFC Championship Game, their best finish ever. Originally signed as a free agent quarterback by Seattle in '81, Tice switched to TE his rookie year. Tice played under head coach Chuck Knox in his final 8 seasons in Seattle.

As a 2-year starter at QB at Maryland, Tice completed 71-of-140 passes for 928 yards with five touchdowns as a senior in '80. He threw for 896 yards and 5 touchdowns as a junior. When Tice was a senior his backup was future NFL All-Pro Boomer Esiason.

During his first three seasons as head coach Tice had a weekly TV and radio show. On TV he joined Joe Schmit on "Sportswrap with Mike Tice" on KSTP-TV and paired with former Star Tribune columnist Dan Barreiro for "Mike Tice Live" on Vikings radio flagship KFAN-AM and the Vikings Radio Network throughout the Upper Midwest.

In 2004, Tice was invited by the NFL to address the annual Rookie Symposium, addressing the incoming NFL players about life in pro football.

Tice is extremely involved in the local community and with numerous charities. Tice serves as Honorary Head Coach for Special Olympics Minnesota. Mike, through the Viking Children's Fund, heads up the Tice Academic Team which provides post-secondary scholarships for area youth who demonstrate strong leadership skills. He initiated a player fine fund program "Fine Money for Fine Causes" which distributes the proceeds to area charities. Heading into the 2005 season the program has raised over $100,000 during Mike's tenure as head coach. In 2004 Mike was one of the hosts of a Christmas party for the needy at Winter Park that featured all the players and coaches. Mike joined his wife, Diane, and the Vikings Coaches Wives in supporting the Ronald McDonald House during the 2003 season. Tice continues his commitment to youth coaching through his own Tice Brothers summer football camp, Mike Tice/United Way Youth Football Day and his annual National Football Foundation Youth Coaches Clinic at Winter Park. Among the organizations Mike has volunteered with include: American Cancer Society, Boy Scouts of American, Children's Miracle Network, African American Adoption Agency, St. Joseph's Home for Children, Gridiron Geography, St. Paul Public Schools—Principal for a Day, Play it Smart, The HIKE Foundation, Salvation Army/Nordstrom Holiday Giving Tree, Epilepsy Foundation of Minnesota, ARC Hennepin-Carver, The Church of St. Stephen, The Tyesha Edwards Peace Project, Edina Football Youth Foundation, Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure and Mentoring Partnerships of Minnesota. In 2004 Tice served as grand marshal of the St. Patrick's Day parade in St. Paul.

Michael Peter Tice was born in Bayshore, N.Y. (2/2/59) and attended Central Islip High School in Long Island where he played under former Vikings defensive coordinator and current Central Florida head coach George O'Leary. He lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. He was the recipient of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1987. His brother, John, was a tight end at Maryland and played for the New Orleans Saints from 1983-92. John is currently the Vikings' tight end/assistant offensive line coach, making Mike and John the first brothers to ever coach with the Vikings. Mike and wife Diane have two children, Adrienne and Nathan.

Passing Fancy

With 3-time Pro Bowl QB Daunte Culpepper pulling the trigger, the Vikings passing offense over the 3 seasons of Mike Tice's tenure as Head Coach of the Vikings has ranked among the most dangerous in the NFL. Culpepper's accuracy and big-play potential has made the Vikings one of the most feared teams in the League.

Ted Cottrell
Defensive Coordinator

NFL COACHING: 22nd Season

VIKINGS: 2nd Season

As one of the most respected defensive minds in the game and a proven teacher, Ted Cottrell enters his eighth consecutive season as an NFL defensive coordinator and his second season with the Vikings. Cottrell continues to develop his reputation for innovative defensive schemes, being able to get the most out of his players and putting them in positions to excel. Cottrell brings a track record of success to the Vikings, having coached with teams that have advanced to the playoffs in 7 of the past 10 seasons. Cottrell's teams have amassed an 88-72 regular-season mark in the past 9 seasons. He will be in his 22nd season on an NFL sideline in 2005.

In his Vikings debut in 2004, Cottrell helped guide 2nd-year standout Kevin Williams to 1st-Team All-Pro honors and a berth in the Pro Bowl, finishing as the leading vote getter among NFL DTs on the Associated Press All-Pro team. Williams also led NFL DTs with 11.5 sacks and teamed with Lance Johnstone's 11.0 sacks to rank as the 3rd-most productive tandem in the NFL on the season. The Vikings defensive starters were in flux early in the season, but came together as the starting unit was solidified late in the season. The Vikings defense played one of the best games of the season in the 31-17 upset win over Green Bay at Lambeau Field in the Wild Card playoffs. The Vikings snared four interceptions off Brett Favre and CB Antoine Winfield was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the playoff performance.

Cottrell spent the three seasons before coming to Minnesota coordinating the NY Jets defense and serving as Assistant Head Coach. The Jets advanced to the AFC Playoffs in 2001 and 2002, winning the AFC East in 2002 and qualifying as a Wild Card in 2001. The Jets' highlight during his tenure was their 41-0 win over visiting Indianapolis in the 2002 Playoffs, matching the 2nd-largest shutout win in NFL playoff history.

Cottrell helped tutor a pair of Jets defensive linemen to Pro Bowl berths- John Abraham (2001, '02) and Shaun Ellis (2003). After an injury-shortened rookie season, Abraham returned in 2001 to post 13.0 sacks and start for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. His 13-sack effort was the best single-season performance by a Jet since Mark Gastineau in 1985. The following season, Abraham posted 10.0 sacks and again started in the Pro Bowl. During 2001-02 Abraham started 31 of a possible 32 games and had 82 tackles in each season. In 2003 Ellis notched a career-best 12.5 sacks to rank tied for 5th in the NFL along with notching 109 tackles, 50 more than his previous career-high.

The 2003 Jets struggled to start 0-4 before rebounding to go 6-6 over the final 12 games of the season. In the final 6 losses of the season, the team fell by an average of under 6 points per game. Cottrell's defense pitched its 3rd shutout in 2 seasons against Pittsburgh to go 6-8 before losing the final 2 games to eventual AFC Super Bowl Champion New England and on the road in Miami. The 2003 Jets defense was hobbled by injuries throughout the season, reducing starting DE John Abraham and starting CB Donnie Abraham to playing only 7 games on the season. Starting FS John McGraw was placed on IR after starting only 6 games. Cottrell's Jets did see the emergence of #4 overall pick DT Dewayne Robertson, who became the 1st Jets defender to start every game as a rookie since Mo Lewis in 1991.

The 2002 Jets were a tale of two teams, giving up an average of 32.4 points per game over the opening 5 contests before righting their ship. In the final 11 games of the season the team allowed an average of 15.8 points per game and only twice in that span gave up over 21 points. The turnaround helped the team go 8-3 down the stretch and win the AFC East. In the Wild Card playoffs the Jets hosted Indianapolis and Pro Bowl starters Peyton Manning and Marvin Harrison. The tandem had hooked up for 143 catches and 11 TDs during the regular season before being shut down by the Jets. Manning went 14-of-31 for 137 yards with 2 INTs and a sack while Harrison caught 4 passes. The Colts managed only 10 first downs and 176 total yards in the 41-0 shutout. New York went on to face eventual AFC Champion Oakland on the road in the AFC Divisional Playoffs the following week.

Pro Bowl Praise

Veteran defensive mind Ted Cottrell joined the Vikings in 2004 after spending the past 6 seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with Buffalo and the NY Jets. Cottrell is reunited in Minnesota with former Buffalo Bills stars Antoine Winfield, Sam Cowart, Pat Williams, Keith Newman and Ken Irvin.

In 2001 Cottrell guided the Jets to the #19 total defense in the NFL, tied for 2nd in the NFL with 39 takeaways and tied for the NFL lead with 19 fumble recoveries. Following a 3-3 start the Jets opportunistic defense was vital in putting together a 4-game winning streak in October and November. During the 4-week run the Jets held opponents to 12, 9, 7 and 0 points, shutting out the Dolphins in Miami for the 1st time since 1970. The Jets defense went 7 consecutive weeks allowing no more than 18 points. The team went 10-6 overall and qualified for the Wild Card playoffs, traveling to Oakland.

During his 2nd stint with the Buffalo Bills from 1995-00, Cottrell's defense was a key element in the club making the playoffs in 4-of-the-6 seasons, winning the AFC East in 1995 and posting a 55-41 regular season mark. In his final 3 seasons with the Bills, Cottrell served as defensive coordinator and guided the #1 ranked defense in the NFL in 1999 along with earning a #3 ranking in 2000 and #6 in 1998. The 1999 Bills set team records for fewest points allowed (229 total, 14.3 per game), fewest TDs allowed (23), fewest total yards (4,045) and total first downs (244) allowed in a 16-game season. His #1 defense in 1999 did not feature a Pro Bowl player. In 2 of his 3 seasons as Bills defensive coordinator, Cottrell's defenders posted 40+ sacks, with 43 in 1998 and 42 in 2000. The 1988 Bills defense earned the #1 rank in the AFC.

During his time as Bills defensive coordinator he guided a trio of players to Pro Bowl berths, including DT Ted Washington (1998, '00) DE Bruce Smith (1998) and LB Sam Cowart (2000). As the team's LB coach from 1995-97 he helped Bryce Paup earn trips to Hawaii each of the 3 seasons and in 1995 Paup was named the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. The Bills defense featured some of the NFL's top players during his tenure from 1986-89 and again from 1995-2000. In 1986 Cottrell inherited the #1 overall pick from the 1985 Draft in Smith. From 1986-89, with Cottrell coaching the line, Smith had 15, 12, 11 and 13 sacks respectively and forced 3 fumbles each season from 1986-89. Smith earned Pro Bowl honors following the 1987-89 seasons and was named the Player of the Game in 1987. Bills NT Fred Smerlas joined Smith in the Pro Bowl in 1988. Smith earned Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1990 and 1994.

From 1990-93 Cottrell guided the Cardinals defensive line under head coach Joe Bugel. During the 1994 season he coached under defensive guru Buddy Ryan and tutored the Cardinals LBs, helping Seth Joyner earn Pro Bowl honors, the first Cardinals LB to play in the game since E.J. Junior in 1985. In 1984 and '85 Cottrell coached LBs for the USFL's New Jersey Generals and helped the team go 14-4 and 11-7 respectively before the league folded. During his time with the upstart league he was part of a team that featured Herschel Walker, Doug Flutie and was owned by Donald Trump.

His debut on an NFL sideline came during the 1981 and '82 seasons as LBs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Marv Levy, for whom he would again coach with the Bills from 1986-89. Cottrell coached against the Vikings in the final game at Met Stadium in 1981, a 10-6 Chiefs win.

Cottrell's first taste of coaching came at Rutgers, where he would eventually spend 9 seasons in a pair of visits. From 1973-79 he coached the Scarlet Knights defensive line and in 1980 took over LB duties before leaving the school for an opportunity in the NFL. He returned to the New Jersey school in 1983 to serve as defensive coordinator. During his 9 seasons of collegiate coaching, Cottrell was a part of teams that went 68-31-1 and helped guide the 1976 Rutgers squad to a perfect 11-0 mark and post 4 shutout wins. During his tenure he tutored DT Nate Toran to All-America honors in 1975 and '76. Fellow DT John Alexander was honored in 1976 and DT Dino Mangiero earned All-America acclaim in 1979. As Rutgers defensive coordinator in 1980 he oversaw DBs Deron Cherry and Ken Smith each be named honorable mention All-America and in 1983 LB Jim Dumont was honored. Cherry went on to a successful 11-year NFL career with Kansas City.

As a player, Cottrell was a 7th-round draft pick by Atlanta in 1969 and played LB for the Falcons in 1969 and '70. He ended his pro career in the CFL with Winnipeg in 1972. Cottrell was drafted in the same class as Falcons legend Jeff van Note and played alongside Tommy Nobis.

Cottrell was a standout LB at Delaware Valley College in Doylestown, PA from 1965-68 where he was an all-league choice for 3 straight seasons. Ted Cottrell (6/13/47) was born in Chester, PA. Cottrell and his family reside in Eden Prairie.

Steve Loney
Offensive Coordinator

NFL COACHING: 5th Season

VIKINGS: 4th Season

The 2005 season marks a promotion for Steve Loney after three successful seasons coaching the Vikings offensive line. Loney takes over as the Vikings offensive coordinator this season, a position he held in the collegiate ranks, most recently with the University of Minnesota (1998-99) and Iowa State (1995-97, 2000-01). The 2005 season marks Loney's 29th season of coaching at the pro and college level and his 4th with the Vikings.

Loney's expertise has been a major factor in the Vikings leading the NFL in offense in 2003 and setting a team record for yardage in 2004 while ranking 4th in the NFL. While working under former Vikings offensive coordinator Scott Linehan, his offensive linemen paved the way for the potent Vikings offense to set numerous NFL and team records.

The 2004 Vikings set a team record by averaging 396.2 yards per game, breaking the previous team mark set in 2003. The Vikings ranked 4th in the NFL in total offense and 2nd in passing offense behind the career-best performance of QB Daunte Culpepper, who broke virtually every Vikings passing record and posted the 4th-best passer rating in NFL history. The 2004 Vikings linemen proved their depth by fighting through a series of injuries that forced Loney to start 6 different combinations of players, starting 4 different players at RT while Pro Bowler Matt Birk and veteran Cory Withrow each started at center as Birkfought an ankle injury and hernia surgery. Loney helped the Vikings offense evolve into one of the most potent behind a line that featured only Bryant McKinnie as a 1st-round pick. The other regular line starters, included 3 players, Chris Liwienski, Adam Goldberg and David Dixon, who began their careers on the practice squad and perennial Pro Bowler Matt Birk, a 6th-round pick and did not play center until moving into the lineup in 2000.

The Vikings consistency up front in 2003 featured a starting five that opened all 16 games as a unit. Bryant McKinnie (LT), Chris Liwienski (LG), Matt Birk (C), David Dixon (RG) and Mike Rosenthal (RT) marked only the fourth time in team history that all five linemen have started every game. The Vikings were one of only five NFL teams to have all five offensive linemen start every game. Anchored by these durable linemen, the Vikings distinguished themselves as the only team in the NFL to have three different running backs (8-year NFL veteran Moe Williams, 3rd-year standout Michael Bennett and rookie Onterrio Smith) record 100-yard games. The feat marks only the second time in team history that three backs have run for 100 yards in a season. Also, for the first time in team history, the Vikings had four players break the 400-yard mark – Williams (745), Smith (579), Bennett (447) and Daunte Culpepper (422).

The groundwork for success in 2003 was preceded by a record-breaking season in the running game in 2002. For the first time in team history, the Vikings led the NFL in rushing and set a team record with 2,507 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 2,279 set in 1965. In addition, the offensive line helped set new team records in rushing TDs (26) and yards per carry average (5.3).

Backed by solid offensive line play throughout the 2002 season, 2nd-year RB Bennett posted the 2nd-best single-season rushing performance in team history with 1,296 yards. Bennett also set an NFL record for most consecutive games with a 60+ yard run with 3 (at Tampa Bay, 11/3; vs. NY Giants, 11/10; vs. Green Bay, 11/17). The offensive line opened the hole for Bennett to set a new Vikings record for the longest run from scrimmage with an 85-yard TD at Tampa Bay (11/3). Following the 2002 season, Bennett made his first Pro Bowl appearance.

Loney guided a durable offensive line in 2002 when two-time Pro Bowler Matt Birk (C), Corbin Lacina (LG) and Chris Liwienski (RT) started all 16 games. He also called upon versatile NFL veteran Everett Lindsay who saw time at three different line positions (LT, RG, LG) over the course of the season. Loney also was in charge of tutoring Vikings 1st-round draft choice Bryant McKinnie, who joined

Inheriting Offense

Since joining the Vikings in 2002 as offensive line coach, Steve Loney has helped engineer some of the top offensive performances in team history. The Vikings balanced approach has resulted in the team leading the NFL in rushing offense in 2002, leading the NFL in total offense in 2003 and ranking 4th overall in 2004. Due to injury, Loney was forced to start 6 different combinations along the offensive line, but still set a franchise record for total net yards.

the team on 11/2/02 after ending a contract holdout. McKinnie saw action just 8 days after his arrival in Minnesota and started at LT the final 7 games of the season. The Vikings finished the season with a 3-game winning streak with McKinnie at LT.

Loney joined the Vikings in 2002 after his third coaching stint at his alma mater Iowa State, where he played a key role in the Cyclone attack as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under head coach Dan McCarney.

A native of Marshalltown, IA, Loney was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Iowa State for a total of 5 years – from '95-97 and again from '00-01. Most recently, Loney's offenses were key in Iowa State's back-to-back bowl seasons in '00-01. In 2001, the Cyclones' offense averaged 423.1 yards per game and 26.9 points per game, enough to vault them to the 2001 Mainstay Independence Bowl. The Cyclones' 2000 Insight.com Bowl unit averaged 424.4 yards per game, the third-best total in school history. Under Loney, the Cyclones' offense produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 2,000-yard passer in '00 and '01 respectively. The offensive line was solid under Loney, allowing just 7.0 sacks in '00, the 2nd- lowest sack total nationally.

From '98-99 Loney served as offensive coordinator and line coach at the University of Minnesota under head coach Glen Mason. In '99, the Golden Gophers finished 2nd in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation in rushing offense. Minnesota averaged 415.4 offensive yards per game and 31.6 points per game that same year. In addition to setting 5 school offensive records in '99, Loney's offense produced All-Big Ten 1st-team rusher Thomas Hamner (1,362 yards) and 1st-team All-American center Ben Hamilton.

Prior to his time in Minnesota, Loney spent 3 seasons at Iowa State as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. From '95-96, the Cyclones offense produced the only tailback in NCAA history to rush for a pair of 2,000-yard seasons in 1996 Heisman Trophy runner-up Troy Davis. Troy's brother, Darren, followed that feat with 1,005 yards rushing in nine games in '97. Under Loney, Iowa State ranked second in the Big 12 with an average of 231.9 yards passing per game in '97. The Cyclones ranked 13th nationally in rushing in '96 and 15th in '95.

Before joining the Iowa State staff, Loney was assistant head coach/wide receivers coach at Connecticut in 1994 and assistant offensive line coach for the Arizona Cardinals in 1993. From '89-92 he was the assistant head coach/line coach at Colorado State. He helped lead the Rams to the school's first bowl appearance in 48 years.

From '84-86 Loney was assistant head coach and tutored the offensive line and special teams at The Citadel. He was the head coach at Morehead State (Morehead, KY) from '81-83, after serving as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach there from '79-80. He was the head coach at Leavenworth High School (Leavenworth, KS) from '77-78 and the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Missouri Western College from '75-76.

Loney, a letterman on the offensive line for Iowa State in 1973, earned his bachelor's degree in distributed studies. He launched his coaching career in 1974 at his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach while earning his master's degree in secondary school administration.

Loney was born in Marshalltown, IA on April 26, 1952. He and his wife Terri, a former collegiate golf coach, have three children: Matt, Katie and Kylan. Kylan was an All-Pac 10 honoree and on the Arizona State University women's basketball team and finished her collgiate career in 2005.

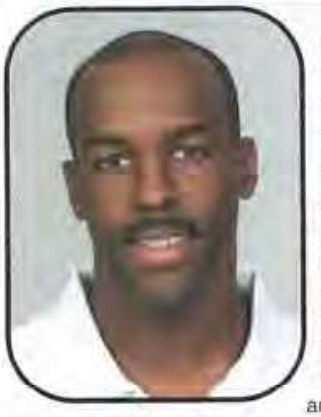
Brian Baker
Defensive Line

NFL COACHING: 10th Season

VIKINGS: 5th Season



The 2005 season will be Brian Baker's 5th with the Vikings and 10th overall in the NFL. His decade of coaching accomplishments includes tutoring one of the emerging stars of the League in 3rd-year DT Kevin Williams, a 1st-round pick in 2003 that earned All-Rookie honors and followed that with 1st-Team All-Pro and a starters spot in the Pro Bowl in 2004. Baker is back at home coaching the linemen, his second stint working along the Vikings trenches.

Baker was in charge of the Vikings defensive line before making the switch to linebackers coach for the 2002 and 2003 seasons. This season marks Baker's 8th in charge of an NFL defensive line, a year with the San Diego Chargers ('96), 4 years with the Detroit Lions ('97-00) as well as the 2001 season with the Vikings. At 43 years old, Baker already has 10 years of NFL coaching experience and 12 collegiate seasons.

Baker benefitted from a boost of talent in recent seasons, including a 1st-round pick along the line in each of the past 3 drafts, Kevin Williams (2003), Kenechi Udeze (2004) and Erasmus James (2005) and adding veteran run-stuffing DT Pat Williams through free agency in 2005.

The 2004 Vikings defense was led by Williams, who earned 1st-Team All-Pro honors and was a Pro Bowl starter in only his 2nd season. Williams led all NFL DTs with 11.5 and joined DE Lance Johnstone to give the Vikings a strong inside-outside pass rush threat as he chipped in 11.0 sacks. The duo was the 3rd-most prolific sack tandem in the NFL on the season. Baker guided rookie DE Udeze to start 15 regular-season games, the 2nd-most by a Vikings rookie defensive linemen since Williams in 2003 and his 5.0 sacks ranked 3rd in the NFL among rookies. Baker helped prepare 3rd-round pick Darrion Scott to start at RDE in the playoffs where he posted his 1st career sack against Brett Favre on his home field in the upset win over Green Bay in the Wild Card playoffs.

In 2003, his second as linebackers coach, Baker guided 11-year NFL veteran MLB Greg Biekert to the 2nd-highest tackle total (107) on the team, marking his 7th consecutive season with 100+ tackles.

In 2002, Baker coached Biekert to a career-high 4 interceptions, 3rd-best by a LB in the NFL that season.

Under Baker in 2001, veteran defensive end Lance Johnstone to a team-best 22 quarterback hurries and 5.5 sacks and oversaw Chris Hovan's move from nose tackle to under tackle where he tripled his sack total and led the team with 6.0 sacks and was second with 21 hurries.

Baker's aggressive pressuring scheme caused 87 quarterback hurries in '01, nearly doubling the 46 recorded in '00. Also, under Baker the Vikings defensive line tallied 16 passes defensed, more than the previous two seasons combined. The position switch to linebackers coach in '02 reunited Baker with his longtime colleague George O'Leary, who coached the Vikings defensive line in '02 and was the Vikings defensive coordinator/defensive line coach in '03.

Baker joined the Vikings in 2001 after spending four years as the defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions. While in Detroit, he was in charge of one of the deepest defensive line rotations in the NFL. Luther Elliss and James Jones anchored the inside combining for 111 tackles in '00 and Elliss made the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. In '99, Jones' first year with the Lions, he led the defensive linemen with 70 tackles and set his career-high with 7.0 sacks. Baker also was key in the development of two-time Pro Bowl LDE Robert Porcher, who had a career-high 15.0 sacks in '99 and led the Lions with 8.0 sacks in '00, boosting his career total to 47.

The Lions' sack totals also increased under Baker from '97-00. After collecting only 32 sacks as a team in 1996, in Baker's first year the defensive linemen alone recorded 31.5 sacks in 1997. The front four produced 25 sacks in '98 and topped off at 39.5 in '99.

During his 4 years in Detroit, Baker coached under Lions former head coach Bobby Ross. The two were first introduced in 1983, when Baker played for Ross at the University of Maryland. Following his college career, Baker coached under Ross for 12 of his 17 years at the college and professional levels.

Baker's first NFL coaching assignment came in 1996 at the age of 33, as the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers under Ross. During his stint with the Chargers, the team featured veteran S Kevin Ross, who now helps coach the Vikings defensive backfield.

Baker spent 7 of his 9 years (1987-95) at Georgia Tech with O'Leary. In '94, he was in charge of the outside linebackers and in '95 was promoted to defensive coordinator/outside linebackers. The Yellow Jackets' defense ranked 4th in the nation against the run in '95. Baker's defenders were key to the Georgia Tech 1990 National Championship run when the Jackets went 10-0-1, the only undefeated team in the land. Baker coached Marco Coleman, the school's all-time leader in sacks when he left, to All-America recognition and propelled him to be the 12th overall pick in the 1992 NFL Draft by Miami where he went on to earn NFL Rookie of the Year recogntion by Sports Illustrated.

Baker began his coaching career at the University of Maryland from '84-85 as the outside linebackers coach and spent the '86 season in charge of the fullbacks at Army. For the next nine years (1987-95) he served at Georgia Tech.

An active member of the American Football Coaches Association, Baker was the first assistant coach to serve on the group's board of trustees. From '92-95, he also served as the Chairman of the Assistant Coaches Committee for the AFCA.

Baker was a 3-year letterman at outside linebacker for the University of Maryland from '81-83. He played under Terrapins head coach Bobby Ross for two seasons ('82-83). In '82 the team finished the season with a trip to the inaugural Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, HI. In Baker's freshman year Vikings head coach Mike Tice quarterbacked the Terps while tight ends coach John Tice and Baker were teammates from 1980-82 . In '83, Maryland was undefeated in the ACC and claimed its first conference title since 1976. That year, the Terrapins were invited to the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, FL.

Born in Baltimore, MD (6/20/62), Baker played running back, outside linebacker and ran track for the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute High School Engineers in Baltimore. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Maryland in 1985. He is married to the former Nevada Tinsley of Manhattan, NY, who earned All-America honors in track and field while attending the University of Virginia. The Bakers have three daughters, Nicole, Jade, and Jasmine.

D-Line Delight

The Vikings defensive line features one of the NFL's rising stars in DT Kevin Williams and one of the top sack tandems in Williams and DE Lance Johnstone. Brian Baker enters his 8th season as an NFL defensive line coach with the Vikings in 2005 and tutors a group that includes 3 consecutive 1st-round Vikings draft choices, Williams in 2003, Kenechi Udeze in 2004 and Erasmus James in 2005.

Pete Bercich
Linebackers

NFL COACHING: 4th Season
VIKINGS: 4th Season

Pete Bercich enters his 4th season on the Vikings staff and takes sole responsibility for the linebackers in 2005. In his new role, Bercich also inherits a unit that has been bolstered by adding a pair of veterans through trades in part of the Vikings dramatic off-season defensive overhaul. Bercich has spent the past two seasons working as assistant LBs coach prior to his promotion this season. He joined the Vikings coaching staff in 2002 as a defensive assistant/quality control coach after playing for the Vikings from 1995-2000 as a linebacker and standout on special teams.

The 2004 Vikings featured a group of young players mixed with veterans new to the Vikings. The group had 37 of the 48 starts by the unit made by players who had never started a game with the club before 2004 in E.J. Henderson, Raonall Smith, Dontarrious Thomas and Keith Newman. In his 2nd season and 1st as a starter in 2004, Henderson led the team in tackles with 125 despite missing a pair of games due to injury. Newman's 3.5 sacks were the most by a Vikings LB since Ed McDaniel's 7 in 1998.

In 2003, Bercich assisted current Vikings' defensive line coach Brian Baker with the linebackers. He helped guide veteran MLB Greg Biekert to his 7th straight 100-tackle season with 107 on the year, which led the linebackers. WLB Chris Claiborne, who signed with Minnesota as an unrestricted free agent after playing his first 4 seasons in Detroit, posted 98 tackles and led the LB corps with 3.0 sacks. SLB Henri Crockett recorded 54 tackles along with a team-high 8.5 tackles for loss. Bercich also helped tutor 2nd-year SLB Nick Rogers, who had 21 tackles along with 6 QB hurries, as well as a pair of rookies, MLB E.J. Henderson and WLB Mike Nattiel. Henderson posted 23 tackles and Nattiel recorded 20 on the year.

During the 2002 season Bercich assisted the defensive coaching staff in weekly game plan preparation and on game days. He broke down the Vikings' and opponents' game tape which was entered into the computer to generate weekly reports. Bercich assisted with the day-to-day running of the defense, scripts and practice plans.

Bercich was selected by the Vikings in the 7th round of the 1994 NFL Draft out of Notre Dame. In 1995, he finished tied for 6th on the team in special teams tackles with 13 despite only playing 9 games. In 1996, Bercich started his first career game at Detroit (12/8) and was 2nd on the team with 12 special teams tackles and in '97 again ranked 2nd with 21 special teams stops. In 1998, he saw more time at linebacker where he finished with 24 tackles and 10 stops on special teams. Bercich missed the entire 1999 season after suffering a knee injury in a preseason game. He re-signed with the Vikings late in the 2000 season and played in 2 regular-season games and both playoff games.

Bercich was a 4-year letterman at Notre Dame from 1990-93. He finished 2nd on the team with 71 tackles in 1993 despite missing 2 games with an injured shoulder. He tied for 2nd on the team in tackles as a sophomore in 1991. He earned a bachelor's degree in finance at Notre Dame.

Bercich was born in Joliet, IL, and was a two-time team captain at Providence High School. In 1989, Bercich was one of five finalists for the National Defensive Player of the Year. Bercich's father, Bob, played running back at Michigan State from 1957-59 and safety for the Dallas Cowboys from 1960-61. In a 1961 game against the Vikings at Met Stadium, the elder Bercich intercepted a Fran Tarkenton pass.

Bercich and his wife, Amy, have two sons, Peter (8/16/99), Ryan (1/24/04) and a daughter, Abigail (3/27/02), and reside in Lakeville, MN.

Wes Chandler
Wide Receivers

NFL COACHING: 4th Season

VIKINGS: 1st Season

Wes Chandler enters his first season with the Vikings as the wide receivers coach in 2005 and his fourth in the NFL. Chandler played 11 seasons in the NFL (1978-88) as a wide receiver and has 12 years of coaching experience at the professional and college levels.

Chandler spent three seasons (2000-02) with the Dallas Cowboys as their wide receivers coach. In 2002, Antonio Bryant earned All-Rookie honors and led all NFL rookie receivers with 733 receiving yards. Bryant's reception (44) and TD (6) totals were 2nd-best in franchise history by a rookie behind Bob Hayes' 46 and 12 in 1965. Veteran wideout Joey Galloway led the team with 61 catches for 908 yards and 6 TDs on the season.

In 2001, Galloway and Raghib Ismail returned to the field after they each had knee injuries that cut short their 2000 season. Ismail (53) and Galloway (52) went on to become the 1st pair of Cowboys' wide receivers to each have 50+ catches in a single season since 1985 when Tony Hill (74) and Mike Renfro (60) accomplished the feat.

In Chandler's first season with Dallas in 2000, Galloway suffered a season-ending knee injury in the season opener and Ismail went down with a season-ending knee injury as well eight weeks later. Under Chandler's guidance, James McKnight led the team with career-highs in catches (52) and receiving yards (926), good for 11th in the NFC. His 17.8 yards per catch average was 4th-best in the NFL. Wane McGarity also became a reliable 3rd-down receiver under Chandler's tutelage, posting 25 receptions for 250 yards.

Chandler came to Dallas after 7 years coaching in NFL Europe, including a stint as the head coach for the Berlin Thunder in 1999. He was the offensive coordinator for the Frankfurt Galaxy in 1998 and prior to that spent three years with the Rhein Fire (1995-97). Chandler made his professional coaching debut with the Orlando Thunder (1991-92) of NFL Europe. He helped lead his teams to World Bowl appearances three times, with Orlando (1992), Rhein (1997), and Frankfurt (1998).

From 1994-95, Chandler served as the wide receivers coach at the University of Central Florida. Vikings' QB Daunte Culpepper was the starting QB for the Golden Knights as a freshman in '95.

Chandler finished his 11-year playing career in the NFL with 559 receptions for 8,966 yards and 56 TDs. He was selected to the Pro Bowl four times, including three while playing for the San Diego Chargers (1981-87). In 2001, Chandler was inducted into the San Diego Chargers' Hall of Fame. He still owns the Chargers' single-game receiving record with 260 yards on 10 receptions vs. Cincinnati (12/20/82) and broke the 200-yard receiving yardage plateau in three games during his career while posting 29 career 100-yard games. Chandler began his career with the New Orleans Saints (1978-81), who drafted him with the 3rd overall pick in the 1978 NFL Draft. He earned his first Pro Bowl bid in 1979 with the Saints.

After retiring from the NFL, Chandler spent three years (1989-91) as the head football coach/athletic director at Father Lopez High School in Daytona Beach, FL. In 1993, he worked at the Wes Chandler Youth Foundation, which he founded in 1982 in Daytona Beach. His foundation, which is now part of the Boys and Girls Club, has helped Florida youth, including Vince Carter of the NBA's New Jersey Nets.

Chandler was a three-year starter at the University of Florida, where he was a consensus All-America on the field, two-time Academic All-America and was voted Florida Amateur Athlete of the Year in 1977. He finished his career at Florida with 1,994 receiving yards and 22 TDs. Chandler earned his bachelor's degree in speech pathology at Florida.

Chandler (8/22/56) was born in New Smyrna Beach, FL and lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track at New Smyrna Beach High School. He has a son, Lamar Saxton.

Dean Dalton
Running Backs

NFL COACHING: 7th Season
VIKINGS: 7th Season

Dean Dalton enters his seventh season with the club and fourth as running backs coach, after spending his first three seasons working primarily on the offensive side of the ball alongside Mike Tice (then offensive line coach) on the offensive line.

In 2004 Dalton oversaw a running backs corps that had four different starters (Moe Williams, Michael Bennett, Onterrio Smith, Mewelde Moore) over the course of the season. Rookie 4th round draft choice Mewelde Moore was the Vikings featured back in three games (10/10-10/24) and rushed for 339 yards and had 198 yards receiving. During that three game span Moore set a Vikings record with combined net yards in a 3-game span. He was named Pepsi Rookie of the Week vs. Tennessee (10/24) with 138 yards rushing which ranks as the 3rd best day by a Vikings rookie. Currently the Vikings have three (Bennett-9, M. Williams-18, O. Smith-22) of the top 22 all-time leading rushers in team history. The Vikings set a NFL record for consecutive game with a team rushing average of over 4.0 yards per carry with 19, a streak that ran from 10/26/03 to 11/21/04. The Vikings featured four different backs during that span, Williams, Bennett, Smith and Moore. The previous NFL record was 14 straight games held by the 1975-76 Pittsburgh Steelers featuring Franco Harris and the 1964-65 Cleveland Browns featuring Jim Brown.

In 2003 Dalton helped the Vikings offense to their first NFL number one ranking in team history. The Vikings finished second in the NFC and fourth in the NFL in rushing. Veteran Moe Williams led the way with 745 yards. The Vikings were the only team in the NFL to have three different running backs (M. Williams, Bennett, O. Smith) have 100-yard games and only the second time in team history that three backs ran for 100 yards. It was the first time since 1984 that the Vikings had three running backs rush for over 400 yards in a season. Williams led all the running backs in the NFC in receiving yards with 644. Dalton helped Onterrio Smith posted the top two rushing performances by a Vikings rookie in a game and earn all-rookie honors. The Vikings 2,343 yards rushing were second only to the previous year. The running backs protected the ball well, having 491 carries and receptions and only losing two fumbles.

In 2002 the Vikings led the NFL in rushing for the first time in their history and Dalton coached Bennett to 1,296 yards rushing on 255 carries (5.1 avg.). The rushing yards were good enough for third in the NFC, second best in team history and earned Bennett a trip to his first Pro Bowl. The 2002 Vikings also set team season records for rushing yards (2,507), rushing touchdowns (26) and yards per carry (5.3). Williams finished tied for third in the NFC with 11 rushing touchdowns and set a team record for most consecutive games with a rushing touchdown (7).

As assistant offensive line coach for the Vikings, Dalton helped Matt Birk make the transition to center after playing tackle early in his career. He adjusted well, earning trips to the Pro Bowl in 2000 and '01, his first two starting seasons.

Dalton joined the Vikings and the NFL in 1999 after spending four years as the managing editor of War Room Publications and the president of The Red Zone Interactive. Dalton has a wealth of football knowledge from many different angles.

The War Room, Dalton's work place from 1996-99, publishes magazines evaluating professional football player personnel through free agency and the draft. The Red Zone operates electronic interactive Internet sites and operates fantasy football leagues via the internet. Both companies have done consulting for CBS Sports, FOX Sports, CNN/SI, The Sporting News, ESPN and SportsFan Radio.

Dalton also worked as the Dean of Students and Director of Athletics for the Delavan-Darien School District in Delevan, WI (1996-98). He was the athletic director and head football coach for St. Michael's Academy in Austin, TX (1995-96). St. Michael's made it to the Texas State Playoffs in 1995 and had three All-State honorees. From 1994-95 Dalton worked as a segment producer for Inside Houston, a business news magazine show. Prior to that he worked as the chief scout for Paradise Sports Corporation from 1991-93, where he evaluated and recruited college talent for the NFL draft. While at Paradise, Dalton worked with Pro Football Hall of Famer Willie Brown and Buccaneers general manager Bruce Allen.

In his last collegiate coaching job at Purdue in 1990, Dalton oversaw the wide receivers. Behind head coach Fred Akers' run and shoot offense, the Boilermakers finished first in the Big Ten in passing. He coached Jermaine Ross, who played in the NFL for six seasons.

During Dalton's time at Texas Southern from 1988-89, he coached running backs (1988-89) and was the defensive line and special teams coordinator in the spring of '90. At Texas Southern, he coached Michael Strahan who now plays for the New York Giants and has been selected to the Pro Bowl six times. Prior to Texas Southern, Dalton coached at Wisconsin from 1986-87. During his time with the Badgers he coached the wide receivers ('86), the tight ends ('87) and was the assistant recruiting coordinator in the spring of '88. Dalton broke into the college coaching ranks in 1984 with Western Illinois. He was assistant secondary coach in 1984 and the wide receivers coach in '85.

Dalton played defensive back at the Air Force Academy from 1981-82. His defensive coordinator was former Dallas Cowboys head coach and current Georgia Tech head coach Chan Gailey. Dalton finished his collegiate career at Western Illinois from 1983-84 where multiple injuries led him into coaching. He got his first chance at Burlington (WI) High where he helped the team to the state playoffs.

In high school at Burlington, Dalton was twice an All-

Conference quarterback and linebacker for a state semi-finalist squad. He was coached by his father, Don, who led Burlington for 30 years and holds one of the top winning percentages (.830) in state history, and is a member of the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Dalton graduated from Western Illinois with a marketing management-history degree in 1985 and earned his master's from the University of Wisconsin in '88. Dean and his wife, Donna, have two sons, Devon (8/3/92) and Davis (11/18/93).

Mark Ellis
Asst. Strength & Conditioning

NFL COACHING: 2nd Season
VIKINGS: 2nd Season

Mark Ellis returns to the Vikings in 2005 for his 2nd season working with the team's strength and conditioning program.

The 2004 season marked Ellis debut in the NFL and a new strength and conditioning program for the Vikings under the direction of Kurtis Shultz. The change coincided with the Vikings return to the playoffs after a 3-season absence and the team notched an upset road win over NFC North champions Green Bay in the Wild Card playoffs.

Ellis was familiar with the Vikings program previously and had served as a speed and agility consultant for the Vikings during training camp in 2003 and has also worked with current Vikings' RB Michael Bennett and DE Lance Johnstone. In the summer of 2004 Ellis sponsored the Purple Power Speed Camp for young athletes.

Ellis worked for the past 3 years with Elite Athlete Sports Training, an athletic performance enhancement and consulting company that he founded in 2001 in Odessa, TX. In 2000, he founded the Millenium 3 Sports and Fitness Academy, a state of the art sports training center for youth in Odessa.

From 1998-2000, Ellis served as the head football coach/athletic coordinator at Ector Junior High in Odessa. He taught high school physical education and health at Independence High in Newark, NJ from 1996-97.

In 1995, Ellis coached linebackers at Fort Scott Community College (KS). He coached defensive backs at Navarro College (TX) in 1994, where he tutored Ramos McDonald, who was a 3rd-round pick of the Vikings in 1998 and played in Minnesota from 1998-99. Prior to that Ellis coached at Cheyney State (PA) and Lackawanna Junior College (PA) and was a student assistant coach at Temple.

Ellis was a 2-year starter at safety at Temple from 1990-91, where he was a teammate of Johnstone. Before he transferred to Temple he was a 2-year starter at quarterback at Tyler Junior College (TX) from 1988-89.

Ellis (12/18/69) was born in Littlefield, TX. He attended Littlefield High School where he was an All-District quarterback and an All-District basketball player. Ellis earned his bachelor's degree in sport and recreation management from Temple University. He has four children, Bianca, Jasmine, Joseph, and Braelynn.

Randy Hanson
Offensive Asst./Asst. QBs

NFL COACHING: 3rd Season
VIKINGS: 3rd Season

Randy Hanson enters his second season as the Vikings' offensive assistant/assistant quarterbacks coach and his third season with the team. His primary job duties include assisting the offensive coaches, working with the quarterbacks, breaking down game film, and performing computer analysis. Hanson has been part of two top-4 ranked offenses in his two seasons in Minnesota.

In 2004, the Vikings had the 2nd-ranked passing offense in the NFL and set a team record for passing yards with 4,754. The Vikings also set a new team record for most yards per game at 396.2. Hanson assisted QB coach Scott Linehan in tutoring Daunte Culpepper as he threw a team-record 41 TD passes, which was also the 7th-highest total in NFL history. Culpepper set a new NFL record for combined passing/rushing yardage in a season with 5,123, breaking the mark of 5,077 set by Dan Marino in 1984. He also posted the 4th-best passer rating in NFL history with a mark of 110.9.

During Hanson's first season with the Vikings when he was in charge of offensive quality control, the offense ranked #1 in the NFL in total offense. The Vikings also finished the season with 416 points, the 2nd-highest total in team history behind the NFL-record 556 points scored in 1998. The Vikings set team records in 2003 for most net yards in a season (6,294) and average yards per game (393.4). The team's 51 TDs ranks 2nd in franchise history behind the 64 scored in 1998.

Before joining the Vikings, Hanson spent three years coaching at Portland State University where he worked with the secondary and special teams. He was named the team's secondary coach in 2000 and added the role of special teams coordinator in 2001.

Prior to joining PSU's coaching staff, Hanson spent five seasons at Eastern Washington. He was a part-time coach at the school from 1993-95, and returned there in 1998 to coach the team's secondary. From 1996-97, Hanson served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Washington. He was the assistant defensive line coach for the Huskies, and also helped coach special teams. Vikings' offensive coordinator Scott Linehan was the offensive coordinator at Washington during Hanson's two years at the school.

Hanson was a quarterback at Delta Junior College, Walla Walla Community College, and Pacific University. He holds bachelor's degrees in communications from Pacific University and secondary education from Eastern Washington. Hanson (1/17/68) was born in Sacramento, CA. He and his wife, Laura, live in Eden Prairie, MN.

Chuck Knox, Jr.
Coverage Coordinator

NFL COACHING: 13th Season
VIKINGS: 6th Season

Chuck Knox, Jr., is in his sixth campaign with Minnesota and enters his first season as the Vikings coverage coordinator. Knox spent the 2003-04 seasons as the Vikings secondary coach, the 2002 season as the defensive backfield coach, the 2001 season as the outside linebackers coach and the 2000 season as the defensive quality control coach. Despite being only 40 years old, Knox is already working with his fourth NFL team.

The 2005 version of the Vikings will feature a pair of priority free agent acquisitions to help Knox in his new role as Coverage Coordinator. Veteran FS Darren Sharper earned a pair of Pro Bowl berths during his 8 seasons in Green Bay and CB Fred Smoot brings a reputation as one of the NFL's rising defenders. Knox will be reunited with Sharper, who he coached in 1999 with the Packers.

In 2004, Knox coached a unit that was led by free agent acquisition Antoine Winfield, who led the team in interceptions (3), special teams tackles (18) and finished with 99 tackles despite missing two games and only being limited to nickel back for two others. Winfield was also named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for his performance in the playoff game at Green Bay (1/9/05). Both safeties, Corey Chavous (112) and Brian Russell (111), had 100+ tackles.

In 2003, Knox helped the Vikings defense rank first in the NFC (and second in the NFL) with 28 interceptions as a team. Brian Russell tied for the NFL lead with 9 interceptions while Corey Chavous was third in the NFL with 8 picks. Russell's 6 straight games with an INT tied the longest streak in team history with Hall of Famer Paul Krause, who notched 6 straight games with a pick in 1968. Russell is the first player in NFL history to start a season with 6 straight games with a pick. It is the first time in team history that the Vikings have had 2 players with 7 or more interceptions in the same season. It is also the first time in the NFL since the 1998 Miami Dolphins that two players from the same team had 8 or more interceptions. Brian Williams had 3 interceptions vs. Detroit (11/23) to tie a team record and was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week. The Vikings set a team record with 699 interception return yards in 2003.

Despite having eight different players start in the defensive backfield in 2002, the unit helped Vikings finish with double the interceptions (16) it had during the 2000 and 2001 seasons (8 each year). Knox helped with Chavous' from cornerback to strong safety after the ninth game. The team then went 4-3 in their final seven games and held opponents under 300 yards in three of the final six games.

In 2001, Knox tutored Lemanski Hall, whose 13 tackles for loss led the team and ranked third with 74 total stops.

During the 2000 season, Knox assisted the defensive coaching staff on both game day and in weekly game plan preparation. He also broke down opponent game tape and provided computer input and analysis for the defensive coaching staff. During the Vikings four game winning streak in November, over an 18-day span (11/12-11/30) the defense allowed less than 20 points per game.

Knox spent the 1999 campaign with Green Bay as defensive assistant/quality control coach on Ray Rhodes' staff. He assisted both defensive coordinator Emmitt Thomas and LBs coach Johnny Holland.

Knox spent four years with Philadelphia (1995-98) as a defensive assistant/quality control coach. In 1995 and '96 the club finished 10-6 and made the playoffs both seasons. The Eagles finished 4th (1995) and 5th (1996) in the NFL in overall defense during Knox' tenure.

Knox began his coaching career with the LA Rams in 1993 as an offensive assistant/RBs coach, working under his father, Chuck, Sr., who was head coach of the Rams from 1992-94. Chuck, Sr., also coached the Rams previously from 1973-77, the Buffalo Bills from 1978-82 and the Seattle Seahawks from 1983-91. Knox worked closely with the running backs during the 1994 season, and helped Jerome Bettis to a Pro Bowl berth.

Knox played RB at Arizona from 1984-88. An All-State RB at Bellevue (Wash.) High as a senior, Knox moved to Washington after his father was named head coach of the Seahawks. He attended Orchard Park (NY) High his first three years and earned all-state football honors. Knox earned a degree in history from Arizona and was born in Englewood, N.J. (2/19/65). He and his wife, Andrea, daughter, Hannah Marie and son Charles Robert live in Eden Prairie, MN.

Big-Play Potential

The Vikings defensive makeover for the 2005 season is highlighted by the addition of some key playmakers that will accentuate the talent already on the roster.

Rich Olson
Quarterbacks

NFL COACHING: 10th Season

VIKINGS: 1st Season

Rich Olson enters his 1st season with the Vikings in 2005 and his 10th season coaching the in NFL. Olson will take over coaching the Vikings quarterbacks and the opportunity to work with Pro Bowler Daunte Culpepper and the potent Vikings offense. Olson's 9 previous seasons working in the League ranks as the most NFL coaching experience on the Vikings offensive staff.

Olson made the jump to the NFL following 20 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, most recently as an offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. During Olson's NFL coaching tenure, he has directed four different QBs to earn AFC or NFC Offensive Player of the Week honors, including Warren Moon twice in 1997, Jon Kitna in 1998, Brad Johnson twice in 1999 and Tim Rattay last season. Olson has mentored a pair of QBs to Pro Bowl berths, Warren Moon in 1997 for Seattle and Brad Johnson in 1999 for Washington.

Olson spent the 2004 season with San Francisco as the 49ers QBs coach, tutoring Tim Rattay and Ken Dorsey. Rattay was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in an overtime win over Arizona on 10/10/04 that gave the team its first win of the season. Rattay threw for 417 yards on 38-of-57 passing and had a 99.8 passer rating. During the '04 season, the 49ers QBs regularly found TE Eric Johnson and helped him earn a Pro Bowl berth after ranking 2nd in the NFC with 82 catches.

The Arizona Cardinals welcomed Olson in 2001-02 as the offensive coordinator and saw immediate results. The Cardinals were coming off a 3-13 campaign in 2000 and had lost 7 straight to end the season. In Olson's first season in 2001 the team posted a 7-9 record and scored 85 more points than the previous season. The Cardinals made also made dramatic improvements in turnover ratio, dropping the total turnover from an NFL-leading -24 to a respectable -3 in 2001. Arizona's 27 total turnovers (14 INTs, 13 fumbles) set a franchise record for a 16-game season and improved on the 44 turnover the previous sesaon. Cardinals QB Jake Plummer rebounded from the 2000 season when he threw 13 TDs and 21 INTs to throw 18 TDs and only 14 INTs. Plummer increased his passing yards by over 700 yards in his first season working with Olson. Plummer led Arizona to 4 comeback wins in the 4th quarter and was one of only two NFL QBs to take every snap during the 2001 season. Cardinals WR David Boston set a franchise record in 2001 with 1,598 receiving yards and earned a Pro Bowl berth. The 2002 Cardinals were devastated by injury, especially on offense. The team was led offensively by former undrafted free agent RB Marcel Shipp, who entered his 2nd NFL season in 2002 without a rushing attempt or catch as a rookie in 2001. Under Olson's tutelage, Shipp exploded on the scene to lead the Cardinals in rushing with 834 yards, ranked 2nd with 38 catches and combined for 1,241 rushing/receiving yards to lead the team and scored a team-high 9 TDs.

During Olson's two seasons as QBs coach in Washington, the Redskins rebounded from a 6-10 record in 1998 to go 10-6 in 1999, win the NFC East and advance to the playoffs for the 1st time since 1992. Olson teamed with QB Brad Johnson, acquired by Washington in an off-season trade with Minnesota, and helped guide the veteran signal-caller to a Pro Bowl season. Johnson posted a 90.0 passer rating, the 1st Redskins QB to post a 90.0 passer rating or higher in 13 seasons. The Redskins increased their scoring by 124 points from the 1998 to the 1999 season, notching 443 points to rank 3rd in franchise history. Johnson's 24 TD passes rank tied for 5th-most by a Redskins QB and he set the franchise record with 471 yards passing at San Francisco in the regular-season finale on 12/26/99, connecting on 32-of-47 passes.

Olson entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1995 with Seattle, joining Dennis Erickson's staff as the Seahawks QBs coach. In Olson's opening seasons in Seattle the QB position was unsettled as the team played Rick Mirer and John Friesz. In his final 2 seasons with the Seahawks, veteran Warren Moon settled into the starting role and the team responded. Moon earned a Pro Bowl berth and set a Seahawks record in 1997 with 3,678 passing yards and posted the 3rd-most TDs with 25. Moon's 528 passing attempts in 1997 still rank as a Seattle franchise record. The Seahawks threw a combined 47 TDs during the 1997 and 1998 seasons, the highest total in 10 years for Seatte. Olson tutored Moon to AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors twice in 1997 and Jon Kitna was honored with the award in his first start of the 1998 season vs. Tennessee (11/29/98).

Prior to jumping to the NFL ranks in 1995, Olson coached for 20 seasons in the college game, highlighted by 9 seasons at Fresno State, the final 8 as offensive coordinator. Olson was part of college football history at Southern Methodist where he helped recruit the "Pony Express" backfield of future NFL stars Eric Dickerson and Craig James.

Olson joined Erickson in Seattle after working together at perennial power University of Miami from 1992-94, coaching WRs in 1992 and taking over offensive coordinator duties in his final 2 seasons. Miami posted a 30-6 mark during his tenure and featured 1992 Heisman Trophy winner QB Gino Torretta. Before his tenure in Miami, Olson worked for 8 seasons as offensive coordinator at Fresno State where the Bulldogs amassed a 77-20-1 record.

Olson began his coaching career in 1970 as a graduate assistant for his alma mater, Washington State. He coached at the high school level from 1971-74 before returning to the college ranks in 1976 with his debut at Fresno State and then a season in 1977 assisting with Southern California's offensive linemen under head coach John Robinson. From 1978-80 Olson coached linemen and RBs at SMU before moving to Arkansas from 1981-83 to coach defensive backs.

A native of Los Angeles, Olson (7/7/48) graduated from Montebello (CA) High before attending Menlo and Harbor junior colleges before transferring to Washington State where he played QB and DB for the Cougars. Olson and his wife, Cindy, have a daughter, Kasey.

Jim Panagos

Asst. Defensive Line/Special Teams

NFL COACHING: 4th Season

VIKINGS: 4th Season

Jim Panagos will take on added responsibilities for the 2005 season, expanding his duties along the defensive line to assist the Vikings special teams. Panagos will work closely with defensive line coach Brian Baker and special teams coach Rusty Tillman.

During the 2004 season working with Baker and the linemen, Panagos assisted rookies Spencer Johnson and Darrion Scott take on starting roles at DT and DE respectively. Johnson, an undrafted rookie, started the final 7 regular season games and both playoff games while Scott took over the starting duties at RDE in the playoffs. The Vikings line was led by 1st-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl starter Kevin Williams, who led all NFL DTs with 11.5 sacks.

In 2003, the Vikings defense ranked #1 in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL with 28 interceptions as a team. For the first time in team history the Vikings had two players with 7 or more interceptions in the same season (FS Brian Russell with 9 and SS Corey Chavous with 8).

In 2002, Panagos worked on the other side of the ball, in charge of offensive quality control. He contributed to the Vikings record-breaking season in the running game. For the first time in team history, the Vikings led the NFL in rushing and set a team record with 2,507 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 2,279 set in 1965.

Before joining the Vikings, Panagos spent four years teaching math and coaching football, as well as several other sports, at C.R. James High School in Tampa, FL. While in Tampa, he was instrumental in introducing a computer/video analysis system to several area coaches, which enabled them to generate more efficient game plans. Panagos also volunteered with Tampa's YMCA youth football program.

From 1994-97, Panagos worked in sales for Safelite auto glass company. Panagos worked out of branches in Washington DC, Baltimore, and Atlanta.

Prior to his four years at Safelite, Panagos served for one year as the assistant defensive line coach at his alma mater – the University of Maryland.

Panagos was a defensive lineman for the University of Maryland from 1989-92. He lettered two times and still holds the all-time school record for blocked kicks (FG's and PAT's) in a season with 5 in 1992. That same season, he led the Terrapins in sacks (5) and tackles for loss (12), despite missing the final three games of the season after suffering a knee injury.

Panagos (3/23/71) was born in Brooklyn, NY. He attended East Islip High School (NY) where he earned first team All-State honors in football. East Islip High School is also the alma mater of former NFL quarterback Boomer Esiason. Panagos earned his B.A. in criminal justice from the University of Maryland in 1993. He is one of five University of Maryland graduates on the Vikings coaching staff, along with head coach Mike Tice, tight ends coach John Tice, linebackers coach Brian Baker and strength and conditioning coach Kurtis Shultz. Jim and his wife Maureen have three children, Jack, Hayden and Olivia.

Kevin Ross
Assistant Secondary

NFL COACHING: 3rd Season
VIKINGS: 3rd Season

Kevin Ross enters his third season with the Vikings as the assistant secondary coach. Ross joined Minnesota's staff in 2003 after spending the 2002 training camp with the Vikings as part of the NFL's Coaching and Administrative Fellowship Program. He will assist Vikings' secondary coach Chuck Knox Jr. again in 2005. Ross played 14 seasons (1984-97) in the NFL as a defensive back, twice earning Pro Bowl recognition.

In 2004, Ross helped tutor a secondary that included free agent acquisition CB Antoine Winfield, who made an immediate impact with 99 tackles and a team-high 3 interceptions. Winfield earned a vote in the Associated Press All-Pro balloting. Veteran S Corey Chavous led the defensive backfield with 112 tackles and added 9 passes defensed. CB Brian Williams led the team with 16 passes defensed and also finished 2nd on the team with 2 interceptions, and S Brian Russell posted 111 tackles and 8 passes defensed. In the Vikings' 31-17 Wild Card win at Green Bay, the Vikings tied a team playoff record with 4 interceptions, with Winfield, Russell, Williams, and Ralph Brown all picking off Brett Favre.

In Ross' first campaign working with the secondary, the Vikings ranked 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL with 28 interceptions as a team. Russell tied for the NFL lead with 9 interceptions while Chavous finished third in the NFL with 8 picks. Chavous was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his 6-year career in 2003. It was the first time in team history that the Vikings had 2 players with 7 or more interceptions in the same season. It was also the first time in the NFL since the 1998 Miami Dolphins that two players from the same team had 8 or more interceptions. Second-year CB Williams added 5 interceptions to give the Vikings three players with 5 or more interceptions, which was the first time the team had done that since 1992. Williams led the Vikings with 20 passes defensed on the year, and veteran CB Ken Irvin and Chavous each added 15 pass breakups.

Following his retirement from the NFL after the 1997 season, Ross spent one season as a scout with the Kansas City Chiefs. He also spent 4 years coaching in the high school ranks in his hometown of Camden, NJ. Ross coached 2 seasons at Camden High School and 2 seasons at Woodrow Wilson High School.

Ross was originally selected in the 7th round of the 1984 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs out of Temple University. Ross started all 16 games as a rookie at CB in Kansas City and was named to virtually every All-Rookie team after recording a career-high 6 interceptions. Ross went on to play 11 seasons with the Chiefs (1984-93, '97) and was named to the Pro Bowl in 1989 and 1990. He finished his career in Kansas City with 30 interceptions. Ross played for the Atlanta Falcons for two seasons (1994-95) and a season with the San Diego Chargers (1996). He started all 16 games at SS for Atlanta in 1994 and posted a career-high 124 tackles and added 3 interceptions and followed that up with 114 tackles, 3 interceptions, and 2 fumble recoveries for the Falcons in 1995. He started all 16 games for the Chargers at FS in 1996 and posted 2 interceptions, 78 tackles, and 2 forced fumbles. During his season in San Diego, Ross was named the Chargers Most Inspirational Player and served as a defensive captain. Vikings' defensive line coach Brian Baker tutored the Chargers' linemen that season.

Ross finished his NFL career with 1,142 tackles, 38 interceptions for 654 yards (17.2 avg.), 2 TDs. He played on six playoff teams and in an AFC Championship Game.

Ross was a 4-year letterman at Temple and recorded 13 interceptions and 249 tackles during his career for the Owls. He was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl following his senior season. Ross posted a career-high 5 interceptions during his junior season at Temple.

Ross was born in Camden, NJ (1/16/62) and earned All-State and All-Conference honors as a LB and RB at Paulsboro (NJ) High. He was part of a state championship team as a senior and also participated in basketball and track. As a prep standout, Ross was recruited to Rutgers by Vikings defensive coordinator Ted Cottrell.

Ross has two daughters, Celia (10/2/83), Cherrelle (6/2/88), and a son, Kevin Jr. (3/28/91).

Kurtis Shultz
Strength & Conditioning

NFL COACHING: 3rd Season
VIKINGS: 2nd Season

In his first season with the Vikings in 2004, Kurtis Shultz implemented a dynamic and intense strength and conditioning program. The results were immediate as the Vikings made dramatic gains in strength, flexibility and endurance.

On the field, the team returned to the playoffs for the first time since 2000 and posted an impressive upset win over border rivals Green Bay at Lambeau Field en route to the Divisional Round where they faced future NFC Champions Philadelphia on the Eagles' home field.

Shultz is responsible for overseeing the Vikings physical preparation for the entire off-season conditioning program and the day-to-day strength, speed and agility work throughout the season. His philosophy of keeping players in top physical condition through weight training and flexibility while not sacrificing their natural athletic ability is the cornerstone of the Vikings strength program.

Shultz comes to the Vikings after spending the 2003 season as assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Cincinnati Bengals. Shultz was part of a first-year Bengals staff under head coach Marvin Lewis that went 8-8, the best record by a Bengals club since the 8-8 team in 1996. The 2003 Bengals were able to stay remarkably healthy, losing only two players to injured reserve.

Shultz gained the bulk of his professional experience as strength coach for the University of Maryland basketball team, helping the team to the NCAA title in the 2001-02 season in his third season with the team. Shultz left Maryland for the Bengals during the 2002-03 season but was part of a Terrapin program that played in the NCAA Tournament each of his four seasons on the staff, advancing to the Round of 32 in 1999-00, the Final Four in 2000-01 and the Sweet 16 in 2002-03. While working for the Terrapins he also headed the strength and conditioning programs of four Johns Hopkins University sports.

Shultz got his start in coaching at Loyola College (MD) where he spent 4 years. He diversified the Loyola program by incorporating CSA kickboxing into their traditional workouts. During his collegiate positions Shultz also spent time working as a personal trainer at Padonia Fitness Center, an elite fitness facility in the Baltimore area. He served as a consultant and kick-boxing instructor for the Baltimore Ravens and trained an elite list of professional athletes, including NFL Defensive Player of the Year Ray Lewis and former Baltimore Orioles Jerry Hairston and Gary Matthews, Jr. More than a dozen professional lacrosse players also turned to Shultz for training.

Shultz was a forward on the Maryland basketball team from 1992-95, playing in 67 career games. A team captain as a senior, Shultz was part of Terps teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament in his final two seasons. As a prep player, Shultz played at prestigious DeMatha High in Washington, DC under legendary coach Morgan Wooten.

Shultz (3/10/72) majored in kinesiology/physical education at Maryland and is married to the former Sharon Jacob of Cincinnati. The couple resides in Shakopee, MN.

John Tice
Tight Ends/Asst. Off. Line

NFL COACHING: 7th Season
VIKINGS: 7th Season

John Tice enters his seventh season with the Vikings and his second as the tight ends/assistant offensive line. Tice spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as the tight ends coach and his first season with the club in 1999 as an offensive assistant. In his last 12 seasons in the NFL he has only been associated with two losing teams.

In 2004, Tice coached free agent acquisition Jermaine Wiggins to career-high in receptions (71), receiving yards (705) and touchdown receptions (4). The 71 receptions led the squad and were the third most by a Vikings' tight end in team history. Wiggins was thrust into seeing more action after Jim Kleinsasser was lost for the season with a knee injury. The 90 receptions by the Vikings' tight ends were the most in team history for the position.

In 2003, Tice coached Kleinsasser to a career-high in receptions (46), receiving yards (401) and touchdown receptions (4). Kleinsasser finished tied for third among tight ends in receptions in the NFC. The Vikings offense finished ranked first overall in the NFL for the first time club history and ranked fifth in rushing offense.

In 2002, Tice coached the versatile Kleinsasser, who moved from fullback to tight end for the 2002 season, led the tight ends in receptions (37) and receiving yards (393). The Vikings primarily started two tight ends with Byron Chamberlain catching 34 passes. The 75 receptions by the Vikings' tight ends (Hunter Goodwin had 4) were the most by the position for the team since 1993 when they had 77 receptions. As a team, the Vikings led the NFL in rushing offense for the first time in franchise history.

In 2001, Tice coached tight end Chamberlain, who became the first Viking player at the position to make the Pro Bowl since Steve Jordan in 1991. Chamberlain finished the season with 57 catches, which at the time ranked fifth best in team record books and was the most since Steve Jordan's 57 in 1991. With 666 yards receiving he also became only the third Vikings tight end to top the 600-yard mark.

In 2000, Tice coached a trio of tight ends that all started at one point during the season. Andrew Jordan (5 starts), John Davis (9) and Johnny McWilliams (8) each started during the season. The trio finished the season with 47 receptions. McWilliams led the tight ends with 3 touchdown receptions.

In '99 Tice worked with his brother Mike, mainly coaching the younger players on the offensive line. He also worked with the special teams' scout team and did some computer analysis.

Tice is no stranger to the National Football League, having played 10 seasons at tight end for the New Orleans Saints from 1983-92. He was originally a 3rd-round draft choice of the Saints in the 1983 NFL Draft. Tice played in 134 games, starting 56, in his 10-year career. He retired in 1992 due to an injured shoulder. At the time Tice left the Saints, he was 9th on the club's all-time list for receptions (158) and 11th on the all-time list for games played (134). He also had 1,602 yards receiving and 15 touchdown receptions.

From 1985-91 Tice played in 105 of a possible 108 games. During a four-year stretch from 1985-88 he caught 103 passes for 1,074 yards and 12 touchdowns. Tice's best season came in '86 when he caught a career-high 37 passes for a career-high 330 yards. In '87 he had a career-high 6 touchdown catches on 16 receptions (37.5%).

As a senior at Maryland in 1982, Tice was selected honorable mention All-America by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. He was the leading receiver on the team as a junior and senior. As a junior Tice caught passes from his brother Mike and as a senior from future NFL All-Pro Boomer Esiason. His head coach his senior season was former Detroit Lions and San Diego Chargers head coach Bobby Ross. Early in Tice's collegiate career he played center and tackle. Tice earned his bachelor's degree in 1983.

Prior to coming to the Vikings, Tice worked in Melbourne, FL in private business and he volunteered as a football coach at several high schools. Tice took over the reins of a youth football program and was instrumental in the league tripling in size.

John Kevin Tice was born in Bayshore, NY (6/22/60) and attended Central Islip High in Long Island where his head coach was George O'Leary, the former Vikings defensive coordinator and current Central Florida head coach. His brother, Mike, was a quarterback at Maryland and played in the NFL at tight end for 14 seasons. Mike is the Vikings' head coach, making John and Mike the first brothers to ever coach with the Vikings. John and Mike combined for 265 NFL receptions, which is 8th best all-time among brother combinations (5th among two brother combos).

John and wife Barbara have five children, John Eric, Michael, Alexis, and twins Carly and Clayton. The Tice family resides in Edina.

Rusty Tillman
Special Teams

NFL COACHING: 23rd Season
VIKINGS: 3rd Season

The senior member of the Vikings coaching staff, Rusty Tillman enters his 31st NFL season this fall. Tillman will be on the sidelines as an NFL coach for his 23rd season after spending 8 seasons as a player with the Washington Redskins, a career he spent as a LB and special teams standout that earned him a spot on the Redskins 70th anniversary team in 2001.

Tillman's position with the Vikings reunites him with Head Coach Mike Tice, who played for Seattle in 10 of the 16 seasons that Tillman coached the Seahawks (1981-88, 90-91). Tice was a regular on Tillman's special teams units and he served as Tice's position coach from 1983-86.

Tillman served as defensive coordinator for Seattle from 1992-94, Tampa Bay in 1995 and Indianapolis in 1998. He became a head coach when he took over the XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen for their spring 2001 season.

Tillman's coverage teams have allowed only 2 kickoff returns TD in 989 career returns. In his tenure, Tillman's teams have been known for their aggressive play and forcing turnovers. His teams have blocked 17 punts and allowed only 7 blocks, with 5 of those coming in his opening two seasons coaching. In his last 15 seasons, Tillman's punt teams allowed only 2 blocks. The 2003 Vikings blocked a punt vs. NY Giants (10/26) when Jack Brewer blocked a Jeff Feagles attempt. Brewer's blocked punt was the first by a Viking since Mike Merriweather in 1989. Tillman's return units have taken back 6 punts and 2 kickoff returns for TDs in his career while his coverage teams have held opponents to an average punt return of 7.3 yards and an average kickoff return of 18.4 yards in his career.

The 2004 Vikings featured WR Nate Burleson notching the 2nd-longest punt return TD in team history at Indianapolis (11/8) when he took back a Colts punt 91 yards. Along with being the 2nd-longest in team history, Burleson's TD was the first since Randy Moss' in 1999 and the first ever by a Viking on Monday Night Football. The Vikings coverage units held opponents to a 6.5 yard per return average on punts, an improvement of over 4.0 yards per carry from the 2003 team. Special teams captain Willie Offord ranked 2nd on the team with 17 tackles while Antoine Winfield led the team with 18. The 2004 Vikings place kicking chores were handled by the timeless Morten Andersen, who passed George Blanda for the NFL career games played record with the Vikings. Former San Diego Pro Bowler Darren Bennett made his Vikings debut in 2004.

Following a two-year absence from coaching, Tillman returned to the sport in 2003 with the Vikings. In his first season in Minnesota Tillman was charged with molding a kicking game around a rookie punter and a place kicker who had not kicked in a regular-season NFL game. His leading punt return and kickoff return men were rookies while three of the four leading tacklers on special teams were rookies. Kicker Aaron Elling had gone to training camps with Miami and Seattle but earned his first roster spot with the Vikings, an opportunity he converted into tying for the team lead with 102 points and ranking tied for 2nd in team history by converting 48-of-48 extra points. Elling had a season-best 12 points, including 3-of-3 FGs from 22, 46 and 34 yards in the season-opening win at Green Bay. He connected on a season-long 51-yard FG vs. NY Giants. A 7th-round draft pick, WR Keenan Howry returned 35 of the team's 36 punts on the season and set a Vikings rookie record with 247 yards on returns. Classmate Onterrio Smith, a 4th-round pick, led the team in kickoff returns with a 21.8 yard average, 2nd-best among NFC rookies. The Vikings coverage units stepped up in one of the biggest games of the season, holding Kansas City Pro Bowler Dante Hall to a 19.0 yard average on 5 kickoff returns while forcing a pair of fumbles on kickoffs, recovering one. The Vikings coverage units were led season-long by rookie LB E.J. Henderson (27 tackles), 2nd-year LB Nick Rogers (24) and rookie Mike Nattiel (19).

Nothing Beats Experience

The 2005 Vikings coaching staff has a wealth of coaching experience but also a long history with the NFL as players. Mike Tice's 14 seasons as an NFL player are the most among the current NFL head coaches.

During Tillman's NFL special teams coaching career he has guided a pair of Seattle coverage men to Pro Bowl berths, sending Fredd Young to Hawaii following the 1984 and '85 seasons and Rufus Porter following the 1988 and '89 campaigns. In 1986 Bobby Joe Edmonds represented the Seahawks as the AFC's kick returner in the Pro Bowl. Tillman placed a Seahawk special teamer in the Pro Bowl in 1984, '85, '86, '88 and '89 and saw Young move from making the AFC team as a coverage man in 1984 and '85 to making it as a starting LB in 1986 and '87.

Edmonds led the NFL in punt returns in '86 with a 12.3 yard average and led the AFC in '87 at 12.6 yards per return. In '83, kickoff returner Zachary Dixon led the NFL in returns (49) and return yards (1,448) while James Jefferson's 97-yard return was the longest in the AFC in 1989. Tillman oversaw Seattle punter Jeff West lead the AFC with a 36.1 net average in 1981.

For the final 3 seasons he spent in Seattle (1992-94), Tillman served as defensive coordinator and coached the Seahawk LBs. In 1993 Eugene Robinson led the NFL with 9 interceptions and in '92 Cortez Kennedy posted a career-best 14.0 sacks. Kennedy earned trips to the Pro Bowl as a starter in each of those 3 seasons and Robinson earned a Pro Bowl nod following the 1993 season.

In 1995 Tillman became defensive coordinator for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The '95 Bucs improved from 26th in the NFL in run defense the year before to 15th under Tillman. A pair of Tillman's defenders, future NFL Defensive Players of the Year and perennial Pro Bowlers Derrick Brooks and Warren Sapp, were named to numerous All-Rookie teams in 1995. The '95 Bucs posted the best record since the 1981 team and allowed 20.9 points per game, the 335 points allowed during the season were the fewest since 268 in 1981.

While serving as special teams coach with Oakland in 1996 and '97, Tillman helped Desmond Howard set team records and lead the AFC in 1997 in kickoff returns (61), yards (1,318) and kickoff return yards in a single game with 223 on 10 returns at Seatte. Punter Leo Araguz also led the AFC with a 39.1 net punting average and 93 punts in '97.

In 1998 Tillman took over as defensive coordinator for the Indianapolis Colts, helping improve the Colts pass rush. The team posted 38 sacks on the season, the most since 1992 and DT Ellis Johnson set his career-high with 8.0 sacks. Rookie DT Larry Chester joined the team as an undrafted rookie free agent, spending time on the practice squad before being activated and starting 2 of the 14 games he played en route to earning a spot on the Pro Football Weekly All-Rookie team.

In 2001 Tillman was named head coach of the XFL's New York/New Jersey Hitmen. The team went 4-6 and was a game away from qualifying for the postseason. The NY/NJ franchise ranked 2nd in the 10-team league in attendance, playing their home games at Giants Stadium.

During Tillman's 8 seasons as a player with the Washington Redskins from 1970-77 the team earned playoff berths in 5 of his 8 seasons and played in Super Bowl VII following the 1972 season. During his final 7 seasons as a player, Tillman played for legendary coach George Allen. As a rookie in 1970 Tillman played for Vince Lombardi before his death. Tillman's Redskin clubs were successful, posting a 73-38-1 record during his tenure. Following the 1973 and 1976 seasons Washington lost to the Vikings at Met Stadium in the playoffs.

As a collegian, Tillman starred at Northern Arizona as a DE, LB, P and TE, setting the Lumberjacks school record for punting average at 44.5 yards and was named to the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 1984. Tillman started his college career as a walk-on at Arizona before transferring to NAU.

Tillman (2/27/46) was born in Beloit, WI. He and his wife, Lorri, have three sons Joshua, Jason and Jacob and a daughter, Rachael. Tillman also has a daughter, Emily and a granddaughter, Sofia.

Todd Downing
Offensive Quality Control

Entering his 4th season assisting the Vikings coaching staff and in his 6th associated with the franchise in various roles is Todd Downing.

An assistant to the coaching staff since Mike Tice took over head coaching duties in 2002, Downing interned in the Vikings public relations and research and development departments prior to assisting the coaches.

Downing's current responsibilities include working with the running backs and the offensive staff in assembling game plans, scripting practices and installation drawings.

Downing is a local product who attended Eden Prairie High School where he was prep QB. Downing earned his bachelor's in business communications from the University of Minnesota in 2002. He worked with the EPHS coaching staff under Mike Grant, the son of Pro Football Hall of Famer Bud Grant in 1999 and 2000. The perennial state powers won the Minnesota Class AAAAA state title in 1999. For 3 summers, 2000-02, Downing played QB for the Minnesota Maulers, a semi-pro football team.

Downing (7/22/80) is single and resides in Eden Prairie. He has worked with handicapped and under-privileged middle-school children.

Sid Pillai
Coaches Support Admin.

Entering his 6th season assisting the Vikings coaching staff is Sid Pillai, the Vikings' Coaches Support Administrator.

Pillai works closely with the Vikings coaching staff in a variety of support roles and administrative duties. Pillai spends time working with special teams coach Rusty Tillman and the Vikings kicking specialists.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Pillai spent two years as an Americorps volunteer, the first year in the National Civilian Community Corps in Denver, CO and the 2nd year in North Carolina with Habitat For Humanity of Moore County.

A native of Long Island, NY, Pillai (6/2/75) is the eldest of 6 children. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in mathematics. During his Penn tenure, Pillai played on and managed for the Quaker baseball team.

Scott Studwell
Director of College Scouting

After establishing himself as one of the top players in team history during his 14 seasons (1977-90) at linebacker for the Minnesota Vikings, Scott Studwell enters his 13th year in the team's Player Personnel department. He retired from his playing career after the 1991 season and spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations before being named the Player Personnel Coordinator from 1992-2001. Studwell was named to his current post as Director of College Scouting in April 2002. His new responsibilities include overseeing all college scouting efforts and preparation for the annual NFL Draft.

Studwell has been a part of successful drafts that have included Robert Smith (1st round, '93), Todd Steussie (1st, '94), David Palmer (2nd, '94), Korey Stringer (1st, '95), Orlando Thomas (2nd, '95), Dwayne Rudd (1st, '97), Randy Moss (1st, '98), Kailee Wong (2nd, '98), Matt Birk (6th, '98), Daunte Culpepper (1st, '99), Jim Kleinsasser (2nd, '99), Chris Hovan (1st, '00), Michael Bennett (1st, '01), Bryant McKinnie (1st, '02), Kevin Williams (1st, '03) and Kenechi Udeze (1st, '04). In 2004 Kevin Williams, in just his second season, was selected to the Pro Bowl and named 1st-Team All-Pro. Every player selected in the 2003 draft made the team for the first time in team history. The players drafted in 2004 played in 85 games and started 32 of them while the rookie free agents played in another 32 games and started 9 of them. The Vikings had 6 of the 8 players drafted in 2004 start a game during the season.

A member of the Vikings' 25th and 40th Anniversary All-Time Teams, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has over 1,500 career tackles. According to team media guides Studwell has more tackles with one organization than any other player in NFL history. In addition, Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. He also played in 12 playoffs contests, including NFC Championship Games following the '77 and '87 seasons. In '87 and '88 Studwell was voted to the Pro Bowl. In '89 he was named 2nd-team All-NFC by United Press International. He also was Minnesota's recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award in '87. After earning the starting middle linebacker job in '80, Studwell led the Vikings in tackles the next six seasons. He also was the team's leading tackler in '88 and '89. Studwell, who tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered three times ('82, '86, '88), finished his NFL career with 15 fumble recoveries and 11 interceptions.

Drafted by Minnesota in the 9th round from Illinois in '77, Studwell finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time tackler (342) behind Dick Butkus (374). In '76 Studwell recorded 177 tackles to surpass Illinois' season record, formerly held by Butkus. As a senior Studwell recorded 23 tackles against Purdue to tie the school's single-game record.

In '90 Studwell was named to Illinois' All-Century Team, joining Butkus and Ray Nitschke as the linebackers on that squad. Studwell earned 2nd-team All-America and 1st-team All-Big Ten honors in '76, and 2nd-team All-Conference mention in '75. Studwell also was the team's co-captain and co-MVP in '76, when he played in the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl.

A native of Evansville, IN (8/27/54), John Scott Studwell starred at Evansville High School. In 2001 Studwell was elected into the Indiana Football Hall of Fame. He majored in commerce at Illinois. During his playing career, he sat on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Minneapolis. Scott and wife Jenny have two daughters, Jessie and Samantha, and a son Jack.

Company Man

Since joining the Vikings as a 9th-round draft choice out of Illinois, Scott Studwell has called the franchise home. Following his record-setting 14-year playing career with the team he moved to a management role in 1991 and into scouting in 1992. A member of the Vikings 40th Anniversary All-Time Team, Studwell was one of the most popular and productive players in team history.

Paul Wiggin
Senior Consultant-Pro Personnel

In almost five decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been a key part of the success of several teams. In his role as the Vikings' Senior Consultant-Pro Personnel, Wiggin works with the department that is responsible for the evaluation all NFL players and advance scouting of the Vikings' upcoming opponents. Wiggin and his staff were put to use extensively in 2005 as the team was the most aggressive it has ever been in free agency, adding top-flight players such as FS Darren Sharper, CB Fred Smoot, DT Pat Williams, K Paul Edinger and trading for LBs Sam Cowart and Napoleon Harris.

During his 20 years with Minnesota, the team has won five NFC Central titles and qualified for the playoffs 12 times, including 9-of-the-past-13 seasons. Wiggin originally joined the Vikings in '85 as defensive line coach, a position he held for seven seasons. During that stint, Minnesota led the league in total defense twice ('88 and '89). In '87 the Vikings advanced to the NFC Championship Game before losing 17-10 to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In '89, the Vikings posted 71 sacks, the second most in a season in NFL history. At the time defensive end Chris Doleman set a league season record with 21 sacks, while defensive tackle Keith Millard added 18 sacks — the third most at the time in a season in NFL history. In addition to Doleman and Millard, Wiggin also helped develop Pro Bowl defensive tackles Henry Thomas and John Randle.

Wiggin came to Minnesota after working with the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee in '84. From 1980-83, Wiggin was the head coach at Stanford University, where he oversaw future NFL first-round draft choices John Elway, Darrin Nelson and Brian Holloway.

In 1978-79, Wiggin was the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. After not winning more than five games in any of their previous 11 seasons, the Saints posted seven victories in '78 and eight in '79.

His first head coaching opportunity came at the helm of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1975-77. Wiggin's first NFL win came in a 42-10 victory over Oakland, who went on to capture the AFC West title in '75. The Chiefs won three straight and five-of-their-next seven games, including a 34-31 upset of that year's NFC Champion Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football at Texas Stadium.

Immediately after retiring from his playing career in '68, Wiggin became the defensive line coach in San Francisco. Despite inheriting a 49ers squad that hadn't been to the playoffs since '57, Wiggin was part of a staff that guided San Francisco to three straight division titles from 1970-72 and the NFC Championship Game in '70 and '71. During his stint there, Wiggin tutored the top two sackers (Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart) in 49ers history. Hardman also set a team season record for sacks with 18 in '71. In '74 Wiggin was promoted to defensive coordinator for San Francisco.

In 11 seasons (1957-67) as a defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight regular-season games, which stood as a team record when he retired. His 18 career fumble recoveries still rank as the second most in Browns history. During his tenure there, Cleveland played in three NFL title games, including a 27-0 win over Baltimore in '64. He started in the Pro Bowl in '65 and '67. In addition, Wiggin was named the team's Outstanding Defensive Player in '63, the Browns' Player of the Year in '66 and the Cleveland Pro Athlete of the Year in '67. Most recently, Wiggin was named by Sports Illustrated's Dr. Z and by Football Digest to the Cleveland Browns' all-time team. During Wiggin's tenure with Cleveland he played with rookie DE Jim Marshall in 1960 before he went on to star with the Vikings the following season.

The Browns drafted Wiggin as a future pick in the 6th round in '56. As a 3-year starter at tackle for Stanford, Wiggin earned 1st-team All-Pac-10 and 1st-team All-America honors in both '55 and '56. Wiggin was named the Stanford Defensive Player of the Century in fan balloting. He also played rugby for the Cardinal. In 2005, Wiggin joined exclusive company when he was selected for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend.

A native of Modesto, CA (11/18/34), Paul David Wiggin competed in four sports and was the Most Outstanding Athlete at Manteca (CA) Union High School in '52. He also set league records in the shot put as a prepster. Wiggin earned his bachelor's degree from Stanford in '56 and his master's in education from Stanford in '59. During his off-seasons as a player, he taught high school and college classes, and coached defensive tackles at spring practice for Stanford. He and wife Carolynn have three children - Kymberly, Kristyn and Kellie - and eight grandchildren.

Exclusive Company

Paul Wiggin and 10 other college football greats were selected as the 2005 induction class for the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, IN. The group will be inducted at the 48th Annual Awards Dinner in New York City on December 6, 2005.

Frank Gilliam

Regional Scout/Player Personnel Consultant

Frank Gilliam has been a big factor in the success of the Vikings' drafts over the past three plus decades. Gilliam has served in many roles with the club, beginning in 1970 as Scouting Director. He served as the Director of Player Personnel from 1974-93 before becoming the Vice President of Player Personnel in 1994. In 2002 he moved into the role of Regional Scout/Player Personnel Consultant.

Fran Tarkenton played in Pro Bowl with the NY Giants 1967-70; Bobby Bell never played with the Vikings and all his Pro Bowl appearances were with the Kansas City Chiefs; Ed White played in the 1978 and 1980 Pro Bowls with the San Diego Chargers; Chris Doleman played in the 1995 Pro Bowl with the Atlanta Falcons and the 1997 Pro Bowl with the San Francisco 49ers, Terry Allen played in the 1996 Pro Bowl with Washington, Brad Johnson played in the 1999 Pro Bowl with the Washington Redskins and 2002 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

A 7th-round draft choice by Green Bay in '57, Gilliam spent three seasons with Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League, where he played for former Minnesota head coach Bud Grant and was a teammate of Leo Lewis, Sr., whose son Leo, Jr. is a former Vikings wide receiver and the team's current Director of Player Development. The Blue Bombers played in the Grey Cup game in '57 and won the league championship in '58 and '59. Gilliam played for Vancouver of the CFL from 1960-61.

Named as a defensive end on the University of Iowa's all-time team, Gilliam helped the Hawkeyes to the Big Ten title in '56, when he earned All-Big Ten and 2nd-team All-America honors. In the ensuing Rose Bowl, the school's first bowl game, Iowa beat Oregon State, 35-19, to finish third in the nation. During that '56 season, the Hawkeyes' defense held opponents to 8.4 points per game, the lowest ever at the school, and 229.8 yards per game, third fewest in Iowa's history. Gilliam, who played in the '57 Hula Bowl, was also a member of the '53 Iowa squad that ended the year ranked 9th in the country. He led the Hawkeyes in receiving in '53 and '54.

Gilliam (1/7/34) attended Steubenville, OH, High School. His nephew is the late Joe Gilliam, Jr., who played quarterback for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1972-75. Gilliam received the Paul "Tank" Younger Award this year which was established to encourage minority hiring in the NFL. Frank and wife Velma have three children, Frank, Jr., Gayle and Michelle. Gilliam has a granddaughter, Ariel, and a grandson, Frank III.

Jerry Reichow
Regional Scout

Jerry Reichow has been a big part of the Vikings organization, consistently fielding playoff teams over the past four plus decades. After playing four seasons with the Vikings (1961-64), Reichow was named the team's Director of Player Personnel in 1966. He was the Director of Football Operations in '75 and became Assistant General Manager, National Scouting in '92. Reichow is currently a Regional Scout evaluating prospects nationwide.

During his off-the-field tenure with the Vikings, Reichow's main contributions have come in the college draft. Not only has Minnesota done well with its early choices, but the team has had great success in finding top players with its late-round selections. Among those selections are Bobby Bryant (7th round, 1967), Scott Studwell (9th, '77), Joe Senser (6th, '79), Wade Wilson (8th, '81), Steve Jordan (7th, '82), Carl Lee (7th, '83), Steve Bono (6th, '85), Terry Allen (9th, '90), John Randle (FA, '90), Todd Scott (6th, '91), Ed McDaniel (5th, '92), Brad Johnson (9th, '92) and Matt Birk (6th, '98), who each have been selected to at least one Pro Bowl. Since '94 eight Minnesota players have made the NFL's All-Rookie team.

Reichow originally was acquired by Minnesota in '61 from Washington for a 7th-round draft choice. His best year came in his initial campaign with the Vikings when he caught 50 passes for 859 yards and 11 touchdowns to become one of Minnesota's first two Pro Bowl selections. Reichow finished 12th in the NFL in catches and tied for fourth in the league in scoring receptions in '61. The 11 touchdown catches stood as the team's season record until Cris Carter surpassed it in '95. Reichow also led the Vikings in scoring in '61. Against Chicago on Dec. 17, 1961, Reichow became the first Minnesota player to catch three touchdown passes in a game. He also led the Vikings in catches in '62 despite missing two games. In '63 he caught a career-long 57-yard scoring toss from Fran Tarkenton against the Rams (10/20). In four seasons as a wide receiver and tight end with Minnesota, Reichow caught 144 passes for 2,183 yards and 19 touchdowns, all of which were team career records when he retired.

Drafted by Detroit in the 4th round in '56, Reichow played quarterback, tight end and receiver during his four seasons with the Lions. He helped the Lions capture the NFL title in '57. In '60 he was traded to Philadelphia, where he was a teammate of Norm Van Brocklin on the Eagles' squad that won the league championship. The next year he was dealt to Washington who immediately sent him to Minnesota, where Van Brocklin had just been named head coach.

As a senior at Iowa, Reichow finished 7th in the nation in total offense with 1,091 yards. In '55 he was named the team's most valuable player, played in the Senior Bowl and earned most valuable player honors at the East-West Shrine Game. He finished his collegiate career with as the Hawkeyes all-time leader in total offense with 2,177 yards. In '54 and '55, he led the Hawkeyes in both passing and interceptions. In '53 he was part of an Iowa team that was ranked 9th in the nation. Reichow was a teammate of current Vikings Senior Consultant/Player Personnel Frank Gilliam at Iowa.

Garet Neal Reichow was born in Decorah, IA (5/19/34) and attended Decorah High School. He was a member of the University of Iowa basketball team that progressed to the Final Four in '55. Jerry and wife Carolyn have three children, Alan (9/22/52), Lori (10/10/56) and Jimmie (11/1/69).

Jerry Reichow represented the Vikings in the Pro Bowl following the team's inaugural 1961 season. He played for the Vikings from 1961-64.

Frank Acevedo
Pro Scout

Frank Acevedo enters his fourth season with the Vikings and his 11th in the National Football League in 2005. Acevedo joined the Vikings after seven seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs' personnel department and serves the Vikings as a Pro Scout.

Acevedo is responsible for evaluating players across the NFL, maintaining updated information on personnel and assists the Vikings in advance scouting of opponents.

Acevedo spent five seasons as Kansas City's area scout covering the Big 12 region. Prior to working as an area scout with the Chiefs he was an assistant in the club's personnel department.

Before joining the Chiefs personnel department, Acevedo was running backs coach at Missouri Western in 1994 and '95. Acevedo was an assistant coach at his alma mater, San Francisco State, from 1985-89.

Acevedo played defensive back for two seasons at San Francisco State after transferring from Palomar Junior College. He was a team captain at SFSU as a senior and also earned All-Northern California Athletic Conference honors.

Born in Escondido, CA (3/5/64), Acevedo attended San Pasqual High School and went on to earn his bachelor's degree in physical education from SFSU. He and his wife, Phoebe, have a daughter Estella and a son, Antonio.

Conrad Cardano
Regional Scout

After working as an assistant coach with several highly-successful collegiate programs, Conrad Cardano brought some of that winning magic to the Vikings when he joined the organization in 1987. He currently is a Regional Scout evaluating at prospects throughout the Eastern seaboard and the Southeast.

Since joining the Vikings, Cardano has helped build a team that has made the playoffs 12 times, including NFC Central titles in '89, '92, '94, '98 and '00. The team has played in three NFC Championship Games during his tenure with the organization.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Cardano worked for three years (1984-86) for the Blesto Scouting Combine. From 1981-83 he coached receivers, tight ends and quarterbacks in the passing game at Eastern Kentucky, which won the Ohio Valley Conference title each of his three seasons there. The Colonels captured the NCAA Division I-AA championship in '82, when they went 13-0, garnering the most wins in a season in school history. Eastern Kentucky also set a school mark for consecutive wins (18) from '82-83. Cardano joined Eastern Kentucky after two seasons (1979-80) overseeing wide receivers at Marshall.

His first collegiate coaching job came as offensive coordinator at Catholic University from 1975-78. In Cardano's first year there, the Cardinals posted their most wins (8) since '39. He also helped the school to a combined 26-10 record and four straight winning seasons for the first time since 1937-40. Cardano tutored two All-America quarterbacks with the Cardinals.

Cardano played quarterback for the Hagarstown Bears of the Seaboard Pro League from 1972-73 and coached at Tuscola High School in Waynesville, NC and Dover-Sherborn High School in Dover, MA. As a collegiate player Cardano quarterbacked Western Carolina from 1967-70.

Born in Washington, DC, Cardano (8/18/48) attended Bladensburg (MD) High School. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education at Western Carolina. In 1982 Cardano received his master's in education administration and supervision from Bowie State College in Maryland. His wife's name is Gloria. Cardano has two sons — Christopher (8/7/83) and Anthony (7/31/88).

John Fitzpatrick
Regional Scout

John Fitzpatrick joined the Vikings as an Area Scout in 1993 after he spent seven seasons (1986-92) working with the National Scouting Combine. Fitzpatrick covers the South and Southwest regions of the country.

In Fitzpatrick's 12 years with Minnesota, the team has made the playoffs eight times, including NFC Central titles in '94, '98 and '00 and trips to the NFC Championship game in '98 and '00. Fitzpatrick became a Regional Scout in 1999.

In '85 Fitzpatrick was a graduate assistant coach working with the offensive line at Arizona State. That year the Sun Devils posted an 8-3 record to earn a trip to play Arkansas in the Holiday Bowl. Three starters — Randall McDaniel, Todd Kalis, Danny Villa — on Arizona State's offensive line that year were drafted by the NFL.

Signed as a free agent by Dallas in '84, Fitzpatrick suffered a knee injury in preseason and spent his rookie year on the Cowboys' injured reserve list. Fitzpatrick played guard for two seasons (1982-83) at Purdue, where he blocked for running back Mel Gray, a future All-Pro return man in the NFL, and quarterback Scott Campbell, the Boilermakers' second all-time leading passer at the time. Prior to transferring to Purdue, Fitzpatrick set a Western Athletic Conference record for weightlifting at Wyoming.

Born in Chicago, IL (6/6/61), John W. Fitzpatrick attended Greencastle (IN) High School. He earned his degree in criminal law from Purdue. Fitzpatrick resides in Langtry, TX.

Kevin McCabe
Regional Scout

Kevin McCabe enters his fourth season with the Minnesota Vikings as a Regional Scout, working in the Western region of the country.

McCabe came to the Vikings after working with the St. Louis Rams as an area scout for seven years (1995-2001) and volunteering with the Rams personnel department in 1994. During his tenure with the Rams, the team became known as one of the most potent offensive attacks in the NFL. In 1999 the Rams went 13-3 in the regular season and won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee following a 4-12 campaign in 1998. In 2001, St. Louis posted a 14-2 regular season mark and lost Super Bowl XXXVI to New England in one of the most exciting Super Bowls in League history. In his final three seasons with St. Louis, the Rams amassed a 37-11 regular-season record, won the NFC West title twice (1999, 2001) and finished as the Division runner-up in 2000.

McCabe began his career in 1985 as an assistant coach at his alma mater, John Muir High School in Pasadena, CA. McCabe coached on the prep level in the Los Angeles area until becoming strength and conditioning coordinator and assistant football coach at Pomona-Pitzer College in Claremont, CA. He stayed at the school from 1991-94. In 1993 McCabe coached overseas for the East City Giants in Helsinki, Finland.

McCabe (3/23/63) is a native of Pasadena and earned a bachelor's degree in political science in 1985 from Princeton University, where he was a three-year letterman for the Tiger football team. Kevin and his wife, Anne, have sons, Torin (8) and Keenan (2), and a daughter, Kate (5). The family resides in Woodland, CA.

Ryan Monnens
Pro Scout

Entering his fourth season in 2005 working as a Pro Scout, Ryan Monnens begins his eighth season overall with the franchise.

Monnens assists the Vikings Pro Personnel department with league-wide player evaluation, acquisitions through free agency and advance scouting of opponents.

Monnens began with the Vikings as an intern in 1998 and joined the team on a full-time basis in Public Relations from 1999-2001.

Monnens played wide receiver at St. John's University in Collegeville, MN, (1995-97) under legendary coach John Gagliardi. He was team captain and regular starter his senior season. During his tenure at St. John's, the Johnnies won the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title in '95 and '96, advanced to the NCAA playoffs, and posted a (25-6-1) record.

A native of Richmond, MN, Monnens (12/4/75) was a two-time all conference running back and named Most Outstanding Athlete at Rocori High School. Monnens earned his bachelor's degree from St. John's in 1998. He and his wife, Krissy, reside in Eden Prairie.

Jeff Robinson
Coordinator of Pro Personnel

In 2005, Jeff Robinson enters his 16th season with the Minnesota Vikings and his fourth as Coordinator of Pro Personnel after spending five seasons (1996-2000) as the team's Pro Personnel Scout. As part of his current duties, Robinson assists Paul Wiggin with league-wide player evaluation and preparing scouting reports on upcoming opponents.

After joining the Vikings as a public relations intern in 1990, Robinson worked two seasons (1991-92) as a public relations assistant and three years (1993-95) as operations assistant. He moved into the scouting department in June 1996. Since joining the player personnel department, the Vikings have made the playoffs in 5-of-the-8 seasons, won the NFC Central title in '98 and '00, advanced to the NFC Championship game in '98 and '00 and amassed a 74-54 (.578) record.

In 1989-90 Robinson was an assistant coach at North High School in Minneapolis. He also played part of the '89 season with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

A three-year starter at cornerback at Northwestern, Robinson served as a team captain and was selected honorable-mention All-Big Ten as a senior in 1988. In the Wildcats' 28-10 win over Illinois (11/21) in '87, he returned an interception 73 yards for a touchdown, which at the time was the 7th longest interception return in school history and the longest interception return by a Northwestern player since '63. As a starter in all 11 games at right cornerback as a sophomore, Robinson helped the Wildcats post their best record (4-7) since 1973. Northwestern also tied a school record for takeaways with 31 in '86. He was recruited by and played as a freshman for former Vikings and current Arizona Cardinals Head Coach Dennis Green.

A native of Minneapolis, Robinson (4/16/67) was an honorable-mention All-America and a two-time All-Minneapolis Conference selection at North High School. He also was a 2-time All-State pick in track and an All-City choice in basketball. A member of the National Honor Society in high school, Robinson was recognized by the Minneapolis Public School Athletic Department in '88.

Named one of the Outstanding College Students of America, Robinson earned a degree in organizational studies/business management at Northwestern. Since '91 he has served on the board of directors of the North Community YMCA. In 1995 and 1996 he hosted a college prep basketball camp for the top 30 varsity players in the Twin Cities. For the last five years Robinson has hosted the "Jeff Robinson Football Camp". He and his wife Cassandra have two daughters, Jassandra (11/5/97), Jaila (11/29/00) and a son, Jeffrey II "Deuce" (11/20/02) and live in Shakopee.

Mike Sholiton
Regional Scout

Mike Sholiton returns for his second season with the Vikings in 2005. He has a short tenure with the Vikings, but comes to the team with a wealth of football experience and is no stranger to the NFL. Sholiton will serve as a Vikings Regional Scout in the far West and as the team's Blesto scout, working in cooperation with the scouting service to find college talent for the team.

Sholiton is in his second stint in the NFL after working with the scouting, video and community relations departments of the St. Louis Rams from 1997-2000. He was a member of the 1999 Rams staff when the team won Super Bowl XXXIV over Tennessee. While working with the Rams scouting department, Sholiton maintained draft boards and collected scouting reports while evaluating and profiling draft eligible seniors for the 1999 Draft. While in St. Louis, Sholiton was on the same Rams staff as Vikings Vice President of Operation and Legal Counsel Kevin Warren.

Sholiton comes to the Vikings after four seasons with Fresno State University where he served as Football Operations Coordinator for the Bulldogs. During his tenure with Fresno State the team climbed the national charts and posted one of the most successful stints in school history. The Bulldogs went 36-18 in his four seasons with the program and played in four straight bowl games, including wins over Georgia Tech and UCLA in the 2002 and 2003 Silicon Valley Football Classics respectively. The 2001 Bulldogs went 11-3, were ranked #8 in the nation and featured NFL first-round Draft choice David Carr, who now leads the Houston Texans.

Prior to joining the St. Louis Rams, Sholiton worked as general manager of WUTV in St. Louis from 1997-99 and as a sports production intern with HBO Sports in 1997.

A native of Cleveland, Sholiton (3/13/78) was a four-year letterwinner as a receiver and punt returner at Washington University in St. Louis. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing in 2000 and went on to earn a master's in kinesiology from Fresno State in 2001. Sholiton is single and resides in Phoenix, AZ.

Jamaal Stephenson
Regional Scout

Jamaal Stephenson enters his fourth season as a regional scout with the Vikings in 2005. He is responsible for scouting the East Coast region of the United States.

Stephenson joined the Vikings in 2002 after spending two years in the Houston Texans' scouting department. In May of 2000, he was hired as College Administrator for the Texans. During his time in Houston, he was in charge of scouting areas of Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana, compiling statistics and biographical data on college players and maintaining several scouting databases for the team.

Prior to joining the Texans, Stephenson spent one year as a scouting assistant for the Washington Redskins. His duties included making recommendations on college prospects for the NFL Draft, compiling information for weekly opponent scouting reports and helping to maintain contractual and other miscellaneous information on NFL players. In 1998, Stephenson coached defensive backs as a graduate assistant at the University of Massachusetts.

Jamaal Akim Stephenson (1/29/76) is a native of Goldsboro, N.C. He was a four-year letterwinner at defensive back for Brown. Twice he earned All-Ivy League honors, and was also awarded the team's Charles E. Hillhouse "Unsung Hero" Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational behavior management from Brown in 1997, and his master's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1999. In 2003, Stephenson was selected to Brown's All-Decade Football Team for the 1990's. He was honored as part the 125-year anniversary celebration of football at Brown University.

Chuck Barta
Head Athletic Trainer

In his 18th season with the Minnesota Vikings, Chuck Barta enters his seventh season as the team's Head Athletic Trainer. Four seasons as a student athletic trainer during Minnesota Vikings training camps prepared Barta to become the team's full-time assistant athletic trainer in 1988. He held that position from 1988-1998. In 1996 Barta was honored when the Vikings were named the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year. Barta is a member of the NFL's subcommittee on cardiovascular health.

Following his graduation with a degree in athletic training from the University of Wisconsin-LaCrosse in 1988, Barta worked for two years in local high schools as an athletic trainer in an outreach program sponsored by the Institute of Athletic Medicine in Eden Prairie. He has volunteered an athletic trainer for the Minnesota Junior Olympics annual track meet and was interim athletic trainer for the University of Minnesota football team in the spring of 1989.

A native of Columbia Heights, MN, Barta is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and Minnesota Athletic Trainers Association. He was vice president of the MATA from 1990-92 and served on the MATA Golf Tournament committee from 1993-02. He enjoys playing racquetball, coaching his son and daughter's youth sports teams and completing home improvement projects. Barta, his wife Chris, son Brandon and daughter Mackenzie reside in Maple Grove.

Fred Zamberletti
Senior Consultant-Medical Services

Fred Zamberletti enters 2005 with a long and storied history with the franchise and a remarkable streak intact—Zamberletti has not missed a game in the 44-year history of the Vikings, working 908 consecutive contests. In fact, Zamberletti has not missed a day of work as he heads into his remarkable 45th season with the team.

Aside from the numerous awards he has earned during his career, Zamberletti has earned the respect and trust of everyone associated with the Vikings. In his time with the team Zamberletti has been a friend, brother, father figure and mentor to countless players, coaches and coworkers. When the team held Fred Zamberletti Day on December 20, 1998 before kickoff of the Vikings-Jacksonville Jaguars game, over 100 Vikings alumni turned out to celebrate with him. To the media he's known as "Trainer for Life." Former head coach Bud Grant acknowledged him as the "Cornerstone of the Vikings" and former General Manager Mike Lynn referred to Fred as "Mr. Viking." The players with respect and admiration refer to him as "The Man." To his friends and compatriots he is known as "The Voice of Reason." Zamberletti was the head trainer from 1961-98, the Coordinator of Medical Services from 1999-2001 and is currently Senior Consultant offering advice and counsel to the medical and scouting departments.

A successful entrepreneur and a man of deep religious beliefs, the 72-year-old Zamberletti was a 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Infantry. Following his graduation from the University of Iowa he served as chief physical therapist at Hibbing General Hospital in 1959 and head athletic trainer at the University of Toledo in 1960 before joining the Vikings at the team's inception in 1961.

A native of Melcher, IA, Zamberletti was inducted into the Minnesota Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame and was chosen Professional Athletic Trainer of the Year in 1986 by the Drackett Company of Cincinnati. Zamberletti and then-assistant trainer Chuck Barta earned the 1996 NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year award. In 1999 he earned the Cain Fain Award at the NFL Physicians Sports Sciences Symposium and is an Honorary Fellow of the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center.

Recognized by the governor as an Honorary Ambassador of the State of Minnesota, Zamberletti has also received Minneapolis' Honorary Citizen Award. The PFATS' senior member enjoys walking, bocce ball and cribbage.

Dr. David Fischer
Medical Director

Dr. David Fischer, Medical Director and Orthopaedic Surgeon for the Minnesota Vikings, is entering his 24th season with the team. Dr. Fischer is a founding physician partner of The Orthopedic Center and director of their Sports Medicine Fellowship Program; a nationally accredited program that provides advanced sports medical training and education to post graduate orthopaedic surgeons. Dr. Fischer serves as an associate professor with the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Minnesota.

In addition to his duties to the Minnesota Vikings, Dr. Fischer is the orthopaedic surgeon for the Minnesota Timberwolves. Dr. Fischer was team physician for the 1992 United States Olympic men's basketball team (the "Dream Team") and the 1991 USA World University Games. He served as chairman of the local medical committee for the U.S. Olympic Festival in Minneapolis, was a U. S. Olympic Committee staff physician at the 1989 Olympic Festival in Oklahoma City and is a trustee of the National Gymnastics Foundation.

Dr. Fischer is a member of the American Orthopaedic Association, American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, American Orthopaedic Society of Sports Medicine, Association of Bone and Joint Surgeons, NFL Physicians Association and NBA Physicians Society.

Dr. Fischer completed his undergraduate degree at Northwestern University and is a graduate of the University of Minnesota Medical School. Dr. Fischer and his wife, Andrea, reside in Edina and have two children, David and Katherine.

Dr. Sheldon Burns
Medical Consultant

Dr. Sheldon Burns returns in 2005 for his 21st season as the Vikings Medical Consultant. A doctor at Edina Family Physicians, Burns is a Board Certified Specialist in Family Practice, Emergency and Sports Medicine.

Burns is also the Medical Director for the Minnesota Timberwolves of the National Basketball Association, Medical Director for the Minnesota Lynx of the WNBA and the Minnesota Wild of the National Hockey League. He has served as team physician for a total of seven United States Olympic or World Championship teams, most recently for USA Basketball's gold-medal-winning entry at the Goodwill Games in Brisbane, Australia, in September 2001. Burns will be working as a USA Olympics team physician in the Athens games. He has served as tournament physician for the Minnesota State High School League.

Burns is a Clinical Professor at the University of Minnesota Medical School and is active in teaching sports medicine at the Minneapolis Sports Medicine Center and The Orthopedic Center. He was a deputy medical commissioner of the International Olympic Committee and has worked in six Olympic Games.

A native of Grand Meadow, MN, and raised in Nisswa, MN, Burns received his undergraduate degree from Hamline University in St. Paul and earned his medical degree in 1974 from the University of Minnesota Medical School. Burns and his wife, Linda, who reside in Minneapolis, have two children, Alicen and Evan.

Dave Blando
Director of Football Administration

Dave Blando is in his fifth year with the Vikings organization. Blando joins the Vikings after working as the Denver Broncos Director of Salary Cap for four seasons where he was fortunate to be a part of two Super Bowl championship teams. Denver was one of the few teams that were positioned to stay competitive from a salary cap perspective following their back to back Super Bowl seasons.

Blando works closely with Vice President of Football Administration Rob Brzezinski in managing the Vikings salary cap and developing contract proposals and parameters. He also individually negotiates a number of the Vikings player contracts. He spends a significant amount of his time working on administrative functions within the personnel department. Blando has extensive experience using relational databases which benefit both the Vikings salary cap and player personnel departments.

Prior to his stint with the Broncos, Blando served as a consultant to the Miami Dolphins and spent three years in the League Office (Management Council) and nine years as a financial analyst with the Boeing Company in Seattle. An additional benefit to working for the Vikings is that Blando was able to move closer to his hometown of Aberdeen, SD where he was a graduate of Northern State University in 1984. He is single and resides in Edina.

Bob Hagan
Director of Public Relations

Entering his 15th season with the Vikings and his eighth as Director of Public Relations, Bob Hagan is responsible for coordinating print and electronic media coverage of the Vikings as well as overseeing the publication of the official team guide, yearbook and game programs.

Hagan began with the Vikings as an intern in public relations for the 1991 season and was named Director of Public Relations in 1998. A 1990 graduate of Iowa State University with a bachelor's degree in mass communications, Hagan was an intern in 1989-90 for KARE-TV in the Twin Cities.

In 1991 Hagan served as an intern in the Vikings public relations office under Director Merrill Swanson. In 1992 he was hired full time and served as an assistant under Swanson and then Dave Pelletier until his promotion to Director of Public Relations prior to the 1998 season. Following the 1998 and 2000 seasons, Hagan accompanied the Vikings staff and helped the NFL with PR efforts at the Pro Bowl. He worked with the NFL public relations staff at Super Bowls XXXVII, XXXVIII and XXXVIX.

A native of the Twin Cities, Hagan is a 1986 graduate of Wayzata High School. Hagan and wife Val reside in Plymouth, with children Matt, Carley and Brad.

Mike Harmon
Director of Marketing

In his seventh season as the Director of Marketing for the Vikings, Mike Harmon is responsible for managing the team's branding, marketing, advertising, promotions, publications and internet initiatives. Harmon also oversees the production of Vikings home games, broadcasts and special events and monitoring of other teams' production on the road while serving as the liaison with the Metrodome and NFL on marketing, production and broadcast issues. Harmon and his staff are also responsible for Vikings marketing projects, retail and merchandise efforts and cheerleader and mascot programs.

Some highlights during Harmon's tenure include recognition of the Vikings' branding initiatives by the NFL, the launch and redesign of vikings.com, Purple Pride Playbook and the opening of the Vikings Locker Room official team store at the Mall of America and online.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Harmon served as Director of Sales for the Pittsburgh Pirates (MLB), Vice President of Marketing for the Columbus Crew (MLS), Marketing Services Manager for NASCAR, Manager of Baltimore Operations for the Washington Bullets (NBA), Assistant General Manager of the Baltimore Bays (USL) and Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the Baltimore Blast (MISL). He also has a background in product marketing and retail management prior to his entrance into the sports arena. Harmon has been involved in the development of several new stadium projects including PNC Park in Pittsburgh and Columbus Crew Stadium.

Harmon is a graduate of Towson State University with a major in business administration and minor in psychology. Harmon has been elected to the post of Second Vice President on the Executive Board and serves as Chairman of the Marketing Advisory Committee for the Information, Display and Entertainment Association (I.D.E.A.), an international organization dedicated to enhancing game and event productions, a committee member for the Advertising Federation of Minnesota, a member of the American Marketing Association, and a member of the Board of Directors for the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Twin Cities. Harmon is single and resides in Minneapolis.

Phil Huebner
Director of Ticketing & Hospitality

Phil Huebner enters his eighth season with the Vikings as the Director of Ticketing and Hospitality.

Since October 1998, Huebner has overseen and revamped the successful Vikings Ticket Sales and Operations Departments, which are responsible for customer service and the sale of season, group and individual tickets along with hospitality packages. In 1999 season ticket sales were capped at 60,000, an increase of 17,000 from the 1998 season, and a waiting list was started. Entering the 2005 season the Minnesota Vikings have sold out 74 consecutive pre-season, regular season and playoff games. The three largest home crowds in team history have been during Huebner's tenure, including the team-record 64,482 fans who watched the Vikings battle Green Bay on 11/2/03. The Vikings have topped the 500,000 mark for home attendance in each of the past 6 seasons, setting the franchise record at 513,437 in 2003.

Huebner joined the team in 1998 after 12 years with the Minnesota Twins. While at the Minnesota Twins, Huebner worked in various sales positions with the final two years as the Director of Sales.

A 1986 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, Huebner has a bachelor's degree in political science.

Huebner and wife, Debbie, have two children, Rebecca and Bret, and reside in Andover.

Dannon Hulskotter
Director of Marketing Partnerships

The 2005 season will be Dannon Hulskotter's fifth with the Vikings. Hulskotter and the Marketing Partnerships staff bring a greater level of service to the team's corporate partners, as well as act as the main liaison between the Vikings Marketing and Corporate Sales departments.

Under Hulskotter's leadership, the Marketing Partnerships department oversees all corporate hospitality and travel, in-stadium and out-of-stadium promotions, corporate special events, as well as many other corporate partnership elements. Hulskotter acts as the main liaison with the team's flagship radio station, network radio affiliates, and local pre-season TV partner.

Prior to joining the Minnesota Vikings, he worked with Pacers Sports & Entertainment in Indianapolis from 1999-2001 and CAVS/Gund Arena Company in Cleveland from 1994-99. A graduate of the University of Iowa with a degree in sports management, Hulskotter and wife, Amy, and son, Jack, reside in Shakopee.

Brad Madson
Director of Community Relations

Brad Madson first joined the Vikings staff in 1992 and enters his 10th season as the Director of Community Relations in 2005.

In his tenure, Madson has developed the Vikings community relations into one of the NFL's strongest. In 1999 Cris Carter became the first player in Vikings history to win the prestigious Walter Payton Award as the NFL's Man of the Year. The Vikings have implemented Community Tuesday as a concept that has been adopted League-wide. Community Tuesdays have Vikings players active in community events at local schools, hospitals, clubs, service organizations and charities on their only day off of the week during the season. Locally, Madson supports United Way, Special Olympics Minnesota and the Page Education Foundation. Madson serves on the Board of Directors for Minnesota DARE, the African American Adoption Agency and Mentoring Partnerships of Minnesota. Through NFL Charities, LISC (Local Initiatives Support Corporation) and the Minneapolis and St. Paul Park and Recreation Boards, Madson has helped lead the $200,000 refurbishing of North Commons Park in Minneapolis and Griffin Stadium in St. Paul.

Madson joined the Vikings in 1992 and worked with the team's suite and ticket sales efforts until 1996 when he took over Community Relations duties. A graduate of the University of Minnesota in journalism, Madson worked in television sports as an anchor and reporter prior to joining the Vikings. Madson was a member of the Golden Gophers' Big 10 champion tennis team during his college career. Madson is single and resides in Minneapolis.

Bob Marcus
Director of Video

In his fifth season with the Vikings, Bob Marcus is in his third as Director of Video after serving as Director of Digital Video in 2001.

Marcus is responsible for overseeing all aspects of videotaping Vikings practices and games as well as distributing video to coaches and players.

The Vikings utilize a Pinnacle Systems digital video network that features viewing stations in each meeting room and coach's office. Every NFL game and all practice footage is put online to be instantly accessed by players, coaches and scouts.

Prior to joining the Vikings in 2001, Marcus worked with the University of Minnesota Golden Gopher football program as video coordinator for 17 years. A native of Minneapolis, he attended Edison High School. Marcus is a 1982 graduate of the University of Minnesota with a degree in photojournalism.

As an undergraduate, Marcus was a student assistant for the Gophers and got his start filming practices and games for the football team. Marcus was hired by the University full-time in 1984. During his tenure with Minnesota, he worked with Gophers head coaches Joe Salem, Lou Holtz, John Gutekunst, Jim Wacker and Glen Mason. The 1985 Gophers won the Independence Bowl while the '86 team played in the Liberty Bowl, the '99 team was in the Sun Bowl and the 2000 Gophers played in the Micron PC Bowl.

Marcus and wife, Tami, have two children, Rob and Amy, and reside in Champlin.

J.P. Paul
Director of Private Suite Sales & Service

The 2005 season will be J.P. Paul's third season with the Vikings organization: it will also mark his first season as the teams Director of Private Suites Sales and Service.

As part of his responsibilities, Paul oversees all sales and operational aspects of the Metrodome's Private Suites not only for Vikings games, but for Minnesota Twins and University of Minnesota football games as well. Paul also acts as the Vikings Suite liaison with Aramark and Centerplate which provide catering services and merchandise fulfillment, respectively, for the Private Suites. Under Paul's leadership, the Vikings also introduced the brand new 'Terrace Suite', an exclusive Premium Seating area which is the first-of-its-kind in the Metrodome's 24-year history.

With sales and customer service experience in the medical and telecommunications industries, Paul most recently developed and managed the premium seating program for a Chicagoland sports arena development company prior to joining the Vikings. A member of the Association of Luxury Suite Directors, he also serves on the NFL's Premium Seating Committee. A lifelong sports fan and participant, he played Division I collegiate baseball at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in marketing.

J.P. and his wife, Megan, reside in Chaska with their two sons, Ryan and Matthew.

Les Pico
Director of Player Development/Legal

Entering his first season with the Vikings but his eighth associated with the National Football League, Les Pico joins the Vikings as Director of Player Development/Legal. Pico will be responsible for heading the Vikings efforts in player related programs including continuing education, family assistance and career internships. Other areas of Pico's expertise will include joining players at the annual Rookie Symposium, serving as a team liaison between the NCAA and the team and legal issues that arise concerning players, coaches and staff.

Pico joins the Vikings after four seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs where he worked as Player Development Coordinator/Legal. The Chiefs have a reputation league-wide for their dedication to player programs and working to develop the off-the-field aspects of players lives.

Pico's background professionally with athletics extends to his tenure with NFL Security from 1998-2000 and with the NCAA from 1991-98 working as an enforcement representative where he investigated possible infractions at member institutions.

A native of Mesa, AZ, Pico graduated from Westwood High before attending Scottsdale Community College where he was a decorated QB and engineered the nationally-ranked SCC offense while earning team MVP honors. Following his two seasons at SCC, Pico went on a two-year LDS mission in the Midwest and then became involved in private business. He returned to complete his bachelor's degree at Arizona State University in criminal justice and walked on with the Sun Devils football team. Pico was a Cum Laude graduate with a bachelor's in criminal justice from ASU in 1987 and went on to law school at Washburn University in Kansas. During law school Pico worked as an assistant coach with the football team and was Vice President of the Hispanic American Law Student Association on campus before earning his Juris Doctorate in 1991.

Pico and his wife, Rita, have four children.

Dennis Ryan
Equipment Manager

One of the veteran equipment managers in the NFL, Dennis Ryan enters his 30th season of service with the Vikings. A lifetime resident of St. Paul, Ryan joined the Vikings in 1976 as an assistant to Jim "Stubby" Eason, who spent 20 years as the Vikings Equipment Manager. Ryan was elevated to Equipment Manager in June 1981. At 21 years old, Ryan became the youngest equipment manager in the NFL. He is only the second person in Vikings history to hold the title of Equipment Manager.

In 1984 Ryan designed the first eye shield to be worn by a player in an NFL game, creating a shield to protect defensive tackle Mark Mullaney who had suffered an eye injury in a previous game. In March 1995 Ryan received the Whitey Zimmerman Award, recognizing the NFL's Equipment Manager of the Year.

Ryan attended the University of Minnesota (1978-79) and University of St. Thomas (1980-81). He and wife Laura, have three children, Ben, Maureen and Ann, and reside in St. Paul.

Mike Slates
Director of Corporate Sales

Mike Slates begins his sixth season with the Vikings in 2004 as Director of Corporate Sales. Slates is responsible for overseeing all aspects of corporate sponsorship revenue, including media, signage, print, internet, promotional and special event sales. Under his leadership and with the addition of radio and television broadcast rights, the group has totaled record-setting revenues each year.

Prior to joining the Vikings, Slates was a Corporate Sales Consultant for the NBA's Cleveland Cavaliers. From 1998-2000, he was Director of Corporate Sales for the Columbus Crew of Major League Soccer. During that time the Crew opened the nation's first professional soccer-specific stadium and corporate sales posted dramatic increases in revenue. Slates also worked for the ECHL's Columbus Chill for a year and Boilers, Inc., a subsidiary of Purdue University, for 4 years.

Slates, who earned his bachelor's degree in sports management at Bowling Green State University, and wife Victoria have a daughter, Rachel, and a son, Noah. The Slates family resides in Prior Lake.

Breck Spinner
Director of Operations

Breck Spinner enters his 13th season with the Vikings as the Director of Operations. Since 1993 he has overseen the department that is responsible for team travel, accomodations and logistics surrounding player workout camps, mini-camps and the annual training camp held in Mankato, MN. In 1993 and '94 Spinner coordinated trips to Berlin, and Tokyo where the Vikings appeared in pre-season games. Spinner is also the NFL gameday designee or liason between the NFL and the stadium. In 1998 Spinner took over the responsibilities for team and event security. Since the September 11, 2001 tragedy, no other department has changed more than Operations. Spinner has worked with the NFL as well as local and federal law enforcement to implement security initiatives brought about by the events of 9/11.

Spinner joined the team in 1993 after 10 years with Northwest Airlines. While at Northwest, Spinner worked in Chicago, Boston and Minneapolis with positions in human resources, operations and sales. In his final two years at Northwest Spinner coordinated the Vikings team charters.

Spinner earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Trinity College in Deerfield, IL, in 1982. Spinner and wife, Laurie, have two children, Allie and Jack, and reside in Eden Prairie.

VIKINGS MEDIA POLICY

Interview Requests: All interview requests for Minnesota Vikings players, coaches, executives or staff members should be directed to the Public Relations Department. Interviews to be conducted by phone must be arranged at least two days in advance and will be subject to availability. Head Coach Mike Tice will hold a press conference the day following games at Winter Park and will make a weekly conference call to speak with the opposing team's assembled media.

Open Locker Room Period: The Vikings' locker room is open for accredited media each Wednesday and Thursday. Head Coach Mike Tice will address assembled media each Wednesday and Thursday in the Sid Hartman Media Center at Winter Park during this period. Television standups and live shots are prohibited during press conferences. Vikings players will also be available to the media following workouts on Friday with the assistance of Public Relations staffers of the Vikings. Players and coaches are not available for interviews on Tuesdays, the day before a game or game day until after the game.

Practice Regulations: The Vikings practices at Winter Park on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday are open for the first half-hour to accredited media. Practices are open for filming during the first half-hour.

Game Credentials: Credential requests are honored for accredited media on specific assignments and must be made through the Vikings' Public Relations Department. Credentials will not be issued to writers or photographers working on a free-lance basis unless the request is made by a recognized publication or news organization. Season-long credentials are issued in July; game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to each home game. Game day credentials may be picked up at Media Will Call at Gate D at the Metrodome starting three hours before kickoff. All credential requests must be submitted in writing to Bob Hagan, Director of Public Relations, 9520 Viking Drive, Eden Prairie, MN 55344 or by fax, (952) 828-6540.

Press Releases: The Vikings' weekly press release may be obtained in the team's press room at Winter Park or on the Internet at www.vikings.com. The team's weekly injury report, which is first released on Wednesday and updated on Thursday, can be found in the same locations.

Still Photography: Still photography is not allowed in the locker room at Winter Park or Metrodome at any time.

Rating Attention

Entering his 6th season as the Vikings starter, Daunte Culpepper has re-written the Vikings record book and built a reputation as a game-changer with his feet and arm. Along with his ability to make the big play, Culpepper has the top passer rating in team history and is consistently an NFL leader.

Record Book Re-Write

Daunte Culpepper climbed the Vikings career charts in his previous 5 seasons as the starting QB, but the 2004 season was the most prolific in team history. His 39 TDs shattered the previous team record of 34 held by Randall Cunningham. In 2005, Culpepper will pass Tommy Kramer's team record for 300-yard games.

Signal Calling Coup

The Vikings welcomed back one of their own in 2005 when Brad Johnson signed on as the club's backup QB, joining starter Daunte Culpepper to give the Vikings one of the most experienced QB tandems in the NFL. Johnson originally came to the Vikings as a 9th-round pick in 1992, the 14th QB selected that year. Since then, he has thrown for 23,913 yards and 143 TDs en route to a Super Bowl title and a pair of Pro Bowls in his 13 seasons. Since becoming a starter in 1996, Johnson has ranked among the NFL's leading passers.

Undrafted and Unsung

The Vikings defense got a boost in 2004 from rookie free agent DT Spencer Johnson, who signed with the team as an undrafted rookie the day after the NFL Draft. A teammate of 2nd-round pick Dontarrious Thomas at Auburn, Johnson came off the bench to take over the starting NT job for the final 7 regular season games and both playoff contests. Johnson joins an elite group of players that have beaten the odds as an undrafted rookie and stepped into the starting lineup.

Picking The Pack

The Vikings upset win over Green Bay in the Wild Card playoffs last season was keyed by the Vikings defense grabbing 4 INTs off Brett Favre on his home field. Brian Williams, Brian Russell, Antoine Winfield and Ralph Brown all had a pick in the game. The game marked the 2nd time in last 3 visits the Vikings have paid to Lambeau Field that they have snared 4 INTs off Favre, the other coming in the 2003 opener in the newly renovated Lambeau Field. The Vikings win was only the 2nd home playoff loss for the Packers in team history.

VIKINGS FIND GEMS IN ROOKIE FREE AGENTS

The Vikings have had success over the history of the franchise in finding players who slipped through the cracks during the annual NFL Draft and were acquired as rookie free agents. These players enter the NFL facing long odds but have proven their worth through hard work and determination. Some of the Vikings most legendary players came to the team as undrafted rookies and the current team features some real success stories. Former Vikings center Mick Tingelhoff came to the team in 1962 undrafted out of Nebraska and went on to play and start in 240 consecutive games, ranking 2nd in team history only to Jim Marshall. Another Vikings legend, John Randle, came to his first Vikings training camp as an undersized defensive lineman from Division II Texas A&M-Kingsville. His high-energy style eventually earned him a spot on the team and the rest is history. Vikings head coach Mike Tice appreciates the uphill climb these players face. In 1981 Tice joined the Seattle Seahawks as rookie free agent QB. Following a position change to TE, Tice went on to play 14 seasons in the NFL. Current players like Cory Withrow, Spencer Johnson, Sean Berton and Kelly Campbell all joined the Vikings as undrafted rookies. Will the 2005 class produce more impact players that just needed a chance to showcase their talents?

"OUR TRUE VIKINGS EXPERIENCE BEGINS LONG BEFORE KICKOFF. WE HAVE THE BATTLEWAGON PACKED AND RUNNING EARLY EACH GAME DAY MORNING. WE LOVE THE SMELL OF BURGERS AND BRATS SIZZLING OVER MESQUITE WHILE WE TOSS THE PIGSKIN AROUND THE LOT. WE ENJOY COLD BEVERAGES, GOOD MUSIC AND GREAT FOOD. THE VIKINGS CHEERLEADERS AND RAGNAR STOP BY TO PUMP US UP EVEN MORE FOR THE GAME. MOST IMPORTANTLY, WE'RE TAILGATING IN THE LAST GREAT AMERICAN NEIGHBORHOOD, SHARING THE COMRADERIE OF HUNDREDS OF TRUE VIKINGS FANS!"

History

VIKINGS LORE

FRANCHISE FOUNDED— Minnesota was granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami on Jan. 28, 1960. The team began play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P Skoglund, Ole Haugsrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the northern Midwest.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin was selected as the first head coach in franchise history. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL as a Hall of Fame QB.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960, RB Tommy Mason of Tulane was taken with the 1st overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were QB Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and DB Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select 3 players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30 of their 38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were OL Grady Alderman (Detroit) and RB Hugh McElhenny (San Francisco).

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the NFL assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in the conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD, on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams in preseason action at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN, on Sept. 10, 1961, the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Vikings defeated the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and 4 touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962, RB Hugh McElhenny and WR Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

FIRST ALL-PRO — In 1963 RB Tommy Mason, who was the team's first ever draft choice, was the first Vikings player to earn All-Pro recognition. He was a consensus pick after rushing for 763 yards and 7 touchdowns on 166 carries (4.6 avg.).

FINKS HIRED — In September, 1964, Jim Finks was named the team's second general manager, succeeding Bert Rose, who resigned in June, 1964. Finks previously had served as general manager for Calgary of the Canadian Football League for 7 years.

FIRST WINNING SEASON — Minnesota won its final 3 regular-season games in 1964 to achieve the first winning season in team history with an 8-5-1 record. The Vikings tied for 2nd in the NFL Western Conference behind Baltimore.

MET EXPANDED — A new grandstand was constructed on the east side of Metropolitan Stadium that increased capacity from 41,200 to 47,200. The new seats were formally dedicated on Aug. 20, 1965, when Minnesota played Philadelphia in a preseason game.

NFL RE-ALIGNED — On Dec. 2, 1966, Minnesota, Chicago, Detroit and Green Bay were chosen to make up the newly-formed Central Division of the Western Conference of the NFL.

VAN BROCKLIN RESIGNS — After compiling a 29-51-4 record while leading the Vikings in their first six years of existence, Head Coach Norm Van Brocklin resigned in February, 1967. His best season was 1964, when he led the team to a tie for 2nd place in the NFL Western Conference with an 8-5-1 record.

TARKENTON TRADED — On March 7, 1967, QB Fran Tarkenton is traded to the NY Giants for a 1st and 2nd-round choice in 1967, a 1st-round choice in '68 and a 2nd-round choice in '69. With the picks Minnesota selected Clinton Jones and Bob Grim in '67, Ron Yary in '68 and Ed White in '69.

GRANT NAMED HEAD COACH — Bud Grant was named the second head coach in Vikings history on March 10, 1967. He came to Minnesota after leading the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to 4 Grey Cup Championships in 10 years as head coach.

FIRST DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 15, 1968 the Vikings defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-17, at Franklin Field then retired to the dressing room to listen to the Chicago-Green Bay game on the radio. Minnesota needed the Bears to lose to clinch the Vikings' 1st Division title. Chicago tried to rally from a 28-10 4th quarter deficit but eventually fell 28-17.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME — On Dec. 22, 1968, in the first playoff game in franchise history, the Colts defeated the Vikings, 24-14, in the Western Conference Championship Game at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Minnesota trailed 21-0 in the 4th quarter but a late rally fell short.

SECOND DIVISION TITLE — On Nov. 27, 1969, the Vikings shut out Detroit, 27-0, at Tiger Stadium to clinch the franchise's 2nd division title. The victory over the Lions was the 10th of a 12-game win streak, the longest in the NFL in 35 years. Minnesota finished the season with the NFL's best record (12-2) of '69.

FIRST PLAYOFF WIN — On Dec. 27, 1969, in the first NFL playoff game in Minnesota, the Vikings came from behind to defeat the LA Rams, 23-20, in the Western Conference Championship Game. Minnesota overcame deficits of 17-7 at halftime and 20-14 in the 4th quarter for the franchise's 1st postseason win.

FIRST NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings defeated the Browns, 27-7, in the NFL Championship Game on Jan. 4, 1970, at Metropolitan Stadium. Minnesota became the 1st modern NFL expansion team to win an NFL Championship Game. The Vikings dominated the game, leading 27-0 at one point.

FIRST SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 11, 1970, the Vikings lost to Kansas City, 23-7, in Super Bowl IV at Tulane Stadium in New Orleans. Not only was the game the 1st Super Bowl in franchise history, but it was the 1st Super Bowl played by a modern expansion team.

THIRD DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 5, 1970, the Vikings defeated the Bears, 16-13, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their 3rd straight division title. Minnesota hosted San Francisco in a divisional playoff game but lost, 17-14. For the 2nd consecutive season, the Vikings had the league's best record with a 12-2 mark.

FOURTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 11, 1971, the Vikings defeated the Lions, 29-10, at Metropolitan Stadium to clinch their 4th straight division title. Minnesota finished the year with an 11-3 mark, which tied Dallas for the league's best record in '71. The Vikings lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Cowboys, 20-12, in a divisional playoff game at Metropolitan Stadium.

PAGE NAMED NFL'S MVP — In 1971 Alan Page became the first defensive player to be named the Most Valuable Player of the National Football League by the Associated Press. Page headed a Vikings defense that held opponents to fewer than 10 points a game to lead the league in scoring defense for the 3rd consecutive year.

VIKINGS RE-ACQUIRE TARKENTON — In 1972 the Vikings traded Norm Snead, Bob Grim, Vince Clements and a 1st-round choice in '72 and '73 to the NY Giants for Fran Tarkenton.

BOYER DIES — In 1972 E. William Boyer passed away. He was one of the prime forces in the drive to bring an NFL franchise to Minnesota. Boyer was president of the Vikings from 1960-64 and sat on the Board of Directors for the first 12 years of the team's existence. He was replaced on the team's Board of Directors by his son-in-law Jack Steele.

FIFTH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings began the '73 season with 9 straight victories and clinched the NFC Central championship before they even lost a game. Minnesota clinched the division crown by defeating Detroit, 28-7, at Metropolitan Stadium on Nov. 11, 1973. The Vikings finished with a 12-2 mark, which tied for the best record in the league that year.

SECOND SUPER BOWL — On Jan. 13, 1974, the Vikings played in the 2nd Super Bowl in franchise history against the Miami Dolphins at Rice Stadium in Houston, TX. The Dolphins prevailed, 24-7. Minnesota earned the trip to Super Bowl VIII by defeating Dallas, 27-10, in the NFC Championship game.

FINKS RESIGNS — After the 1973 season, Executive Vice President and General Manager Jim Finks resigned. Under Finks, who was hired in 1964, the Vikings won 5 division titles and appeared in 2 Super Bowls. He also hired Bud Grant as head coach in '67.

SIXTH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 1, 1974, the Vikings clinched the NFC Central crown by defeating the Saints, 29-9, at Metropolitan Stadium, while the Packers lost, 36-14, at Philadelphia. Minnesota tied for the best record in the NFC with a 10-4 mark.

STECKEL HIRED — Les Steckel, who was an offensive assistant with the Vikings for 5 seasons, was named the 3rd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 29, 1984. Steckel, who came to the Vikings in 1979 after working as an assistant with the 49ers, was the youngest head coach in the NFL in '84 at age 38.

GRANT RETURNS— On Dec. 18, 1984, Bud Grant was re-hired as the head coach of the Vikings. He replaced Les Steckel who guided the team in 1984 after Grant retired following the 1983 season.

GRANT RE-RETIRES — On Jan. 6, 1986 following the 1985 season, Bud Grant retired as head coach of the Vikings. He originally retired after the 1983 season but returned in '85. At the time of his retirement he was the 6th winningest coach in NFL history with 168 career wins, including playoffs. In 18 seasons he led the team to a 158-96-5 regular-season record.

BURNS HIRED — Longtime Vikings assistant coach Jerry Burns was named the 4th head coach in team history on Jan. 7, 1986. He served as the Vikings offensive coordinator from 1968-85, when the team won 11 division titles and played in 4 Super Bowls.

TARKENTON ENSHRINED — On Aug. 2, 1986, Fran Tarkenton became the 1st player who spent the majority of his career with the Vikings to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He retired following the 1978 season with NFL career records for passing yards (47,003), completions (3,686) and touchdown passes (342). He led the team to 6 NFC Central titles, 4 NFC Championship Games and 3 Super Bowls.

13TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — Despite a strike replacement unit that saddled the Vikings with 3 losses, the team made the playoffs as a wild-card entrant with an 8-7 record in 1987. It was the team's 1st postseason appearance under Jerry Burns, who was in his 2nd season as the Vikings head coach.

FIFTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings played the Redskins in the NFC Championship Game on Jan. 17, 1988, at RFK Stadium. Trailing 17-10, the Vikings drove to the Redskins' 6-yard line with a little over a minute left in the game but failed to get the ball into the end zone. Minnesota upset New Orleans, 44-10, at the Superdome and San Francisco, 36-24, at Candlestick Park in the first 2 rounds of the playoffs to earn a trip to the conference title game.

BOARD ADDS MEMBERS — Four people were added to the Vikings Board of Directors in 1988. Joining Max Winter, John Skoglund, Jack Steele, Sheldon Kaplan and Mike Lynn were Wheelock Whitney, Jaye Dyer, Irwin Jacobs and Carl Pohlad.

PAGE ENSHRINED — On July 30, 1988, Alan Page became the 2nd player who spent the majority of his career with the Vikings to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Drafted by Minnesota in the 1st round in 1967, Page made the Pro Bowl 9 times. In 1971 he became the 1st defensive player to be named the NFL's Most Valuable Player by Associated Press. Page played on teams that won 10 NFC Central titles and played in 4 Super Bowls.

14TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — The Vikings won 6-of-their-last-7 games in 1988 to earn a wild-card berth into the playoffs. Minnesota finished with an 11-5 record then defeated the Rams, 28-17, on December 26 in a first-round playoff game at the Metrodome. The Vikings fell the following week to eventual Super Bowl Champion San Francisco, 34-9, at Candlestick Park.

REMAINING FOUNDER LEAVES BOARD — In 1989, Max Winter, the last of the original 5 Vikings' founders on the team's Board of Directors, left the board. He also served as the team's president from 1965-87. He was replaced on the board by Gerald Schwalbach.

WALKER ACQUIRED — On Oct. 12, 1989, the Vikings acquired Herschel Walker from Dallas for Issiac Holt, David Howard, Darrin Nelson, Jesse Solomon, Alex Stewart, a 1st-round choice in 1992, conditional 1st-round choices in 1990 and '91, conditional 2nd-round choices in 1990, '91 and '92, and a conditional 3rd-round choice in 1992. The final result of the trade gave the Vikings Walker, a 3rd (Mike Jones), 5th (Reggie Thornton) and 10th-round choice (Pat Newman) in 1990 and a 3rd-round choice in 1991 (Jake Reed), while Dallas received all 5 players, a 1st, 2nd and 6th-round choice in 1990, a 1st and 2nd-round choice in 1991 and a 1st, 2nd and 3rd-round choice in 1992.

12TH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings captured their 12th division title since 1968 by defeating the Cincinnati Bengals, 29-21, at the Metrodome in a Monday night game on Christmas Day in 1989. It also was Minnesota's 15th postseason appearance in the past 22 years. The Vikings finished the season with a 10-6 record but lost to eventual Super Bowl Champion San Francisco, 41-13, at Candlestick Park in the divisional playoffs on Jan. 6, 1990.

HEADRICK NAMED TEAM PRESIDENT — On Jan. 1, 1991, Roger Headrick became president and Chief Executive Officer of the Vikings. He replaced Mike Lynn as the person in charge of day-to-day operations of the club. In addition Headrick and Philip Maas replaced Jack Steele and Sheldon Kaplan on the board of directors.

BURNS RETIRES — On Dec. 3, 1991, Jerry Burns announced his retirement. In 6 seasons as Head Coach of the Vikings, Burns compiled a career record of 52-43 (.547). He also led Minnesota to 3 playoff appearances, including a division title and an NFC Championship Game.

CHANGES ON BOARD — On Dec. 16, 1991, the team's ownership structure was reorganized. Irwin Jacobs and Carl Pohlad sold their shares to an ownership group consisting of Vikings President and CEO Roger Headrick, John Skoglund, Jaye Dyer, Philip Maas, Mike Lynn, Wheelock Whitney, James Binger, Bud Grossman, Elizabeth MacMillan and Carol Sperry.

GREEN NAMED HEAD COACH — On Jan. 10, 1992, Dennis Green was named the 5th Head Coach in team history. He came to Minnesota after turning around a struggling Stanford University football program as head coach there from 1989-91.

13TH DIVISION TITLE — On Dec. 20, 1992 the Vikings defeated the Steelers, 6-3, at Three Rivers Stadium to earn the franchise's 13th division title. It also was Minnesota's 16th playoff season since 1968. Dennis Green also posted the most victories (11) and the 1st division title by a 1st-year head coach in team history. The Vikings lost to the defending Super Bowl champion Redskins, 24-7, in a 1st-round playoff game at the Metrodome on Jan. 2, 1993.

17TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — For the first time since 1974, the Vikings won their final 3 regular-season games to earn a Wild-Card playoff berth. It was the team's 17th postseason appearance since 1968. Minnesota lost to the Giants, 17-10, in Giants Stadium in a first-round playoff game on Jan. 9, 1994.

MOON ACQUIRED — On April 14, 1994 the Vikings traded a 4th-round draft choice in 1994 and a 3rd-round draft choice in 1995 to the Houston Oilers for quarterback Warren Moon, who has thrown for more yardage and touchdowns as a professional than any other player. He set team season records for passing yards (4,264) in '94 and for completions (377) and touchdown passes (33) in '95.

GRANT ENSHRINED — On July 30, 1994, Bud Grant was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He coached the Vikings from 1967-83 then again in '85. During his tenure Minnesota made the playoffs 12 times, won 11 division titles and played in 4 Super Bowls. Grant also was the first person to be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football League Hall of Fame.

14TH DIVISION TITLE — On the final day of the 1994 regular season, the Vikings defeated the 49ers, 21-14, in a Monday night game to earn their 2nd NFC Central title in 3 seasons and their 3rd straight playoff berth. It also was Minnesota's 14th division title and 18th postseason appearance since 1968. Dennis Green became only the 7th coach in NFL history to lead his team to the playoffs in each of his first 3 seasons.

FINKS ENSHRINED — Former Vikings General Manager Jim Finks was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 25, 1995. During his decade with Minnesota, the team won 5 division titles and appeared in 2 Super Bowls. Finks passed away on May 8, 1994, and was inducted posthumously, represented by his family.

WINTER PASSES AWAY — Max Winter, who served as the owner and President of the Vikings from 1965-87, passed away on July 26, 1996. He was one of the prime forces bringing an NFL franchise to Minnesota and was a big factor in the building of the Metrodome and attracting Super Bowl XXVI to the Twin Cities.

19TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — On Dec. 15, 1996, the Vikings defeated the Buccaneers, 21-10, in the Metrodome. After a Washington loss to Arizona later that day, Minnesota was guaranteed a playoff berth for the 19th time since 1968 and the 4th in 5 seasons under Dennis Green. The Vikings lost, 40-15, to the Dallas Cowboys in a first-round game at Texas Stadium on Dec. 28, 1996.

20TH PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — On Dec. 21, 1997, the Vikings beat the Colts in the regular season finale to reach the playoffs for the 20th time in team history and the 5th time in 6 seasons under Dennis Green. The Vikings went on the road and came back from 16 points down to defeat the NY Giants 23-22 at the Meadowlands on Dec. 27, 1997. It was the biggest comeback win in team playoff history and the 5th biggest postseason comeback in NFL history. The following week the Vikings lost, 38-22, to the San Francisco 49ers at 3Com Park in the Divisional Playoffs on Jan. 3, 1998.

KRAUSE ENSHRINED — On August 1, 1998, Paul Krause was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Krause played free safety with the Vikings from 1968-79 and the Redskins from 1964-67. He holds the NFL record for career interceptions with 81. Krause was selected to 8 Pro Bowls in his 15-year career.

BOARD AGREES TO SELL — On July 3, 1998, The Minnesota Vikings 10 owners voted unanimously to accept the bid of Texas businessman B.J. "Red" McCombs to purchase the Vikings.

NFL APPROVES McCOMBS — On July 28, 1998, the NFL owners unanimously approved Red McCombs' purchase of the Vikings, finalizing the change of ownership from the 10 previous owners to sole ownership by McCombs.

WOODS NAMED TEAM PRESIDENT — On August 20, 1998, Gary Woods became President and CEO of the Vikings. He replaced Roger Headrick as the person responsible for day-to-day operations of the franchise.

GREEN CONTRACT EXTENDED — Head Coach Dennis Green received a 3-year contract extension on September 5, the day before the 1998 opener vs. Tampa Bay. Named Head Coach in January 1992, Green was named Vice President of Football Operations prior to the 1999 season, placing him in charge of all aspects of the Vikings' football operation.

VIKINGS 15 WINS BEST IN TEAM HISTORY — The Vikings won their 15th NFC Central Division title and became only the 3rd team in NFL history to go 15-1 through the regular season with their 26-16 win at Tennessee in the regular-season finale. The Vikings also established a new NFL scoring record with 556 points, breaking the old mark of 541 set by the 1983 Washington Redskins.

SIXTH NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME — The Vikings hosted Atlanta in the 6th NFC Championship game in franchise history with a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII on the line. The teams played to a 27-27 deadlock during regulation, forcing the game into overtime where the Falcons claimed a 30-27 win. It was the first NFC Championship game played in the Metrodome.

22ND PLAYOFF APPEARANCE — The Vikings turned their 1999 season around, winning eight of the final 10 games to finish 10-6 and host a 1st-round playoff game vs. Dallas. Robert Smith set a team post-season record with 140 rushing yards in the 27-10 win over the Cowboys. The Vikings fell 49-37 to eventual Super Bowl XXXIV champion St. Louis in the Divisional Round at the TWA Dome.

CARTER NAMED MAN OF THE YEAR — Cris Carter was honored as the first recipient of the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award for civic involvement, charity work and displaying high character on January 29, 2000, in a ceremony during Super Bowl week in Atlanta. The award was re-named after Payton, a Hall of Fame running back who died in 1999.

SMITH BREAKS TEAM RUSHING RECORD — Robert Smith surpassed Chuck Foreman's 20-year-old career rushing record in the team's 28-16 win at Chicago (10/15/00). Smith ended his career with 6,818 yards. He also established a new team record with 1,521 rushing yards on the season and holds the team record with 29 career 100-yard games.

40th ANNIVERSARY TEAM ANNOUNCED — The Vikings celebrated their 40th season of NFL football in 2000, highlighted by a luncheon on November 30 to introduce the Vikings 40th Anniversary Team. That night the Vikings topped Detroit 24-17 and Cris Carter caught his 1,000th pass on a 4-yard TD from Daunte Culpepper. Carter was only the 2nd player in NFL history to record 1,000 career receptions.

15TH DIVISION TITLE — The Vikings overcame every critic's expectations in 2000 to post an 11-5 regular-season record, win the franchise's 15th NFC Central title and made the 23rd playoff appearance in team history, ending in the 7th NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium.

YARY ENSHRINED — On August 4, 2000, Ron Yary was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Yary played 14 seasons with Minnesota and played in 4 Super Bowls and 7 Pro Bowls during his career.

TICE REPLACES GREEN — On January 4, 2002, Mike Tice replaced Dennis Green on the sideline for the Vikings. Tice coached the 2001 regular season finale at Baltimore. Green assembled a 97-62 regular season record at the helm of the Vikings. Green led the team to 4 NFC Central Division titles and twice played in the NFC Championship game. Green's teams made the playoffs in 8 of his 10 seasons.

TICE NAMED HEAD COACH — On January 10, 2002 Mike Tice was named the 6th Head Coach in Vikings history. Tice is the 3rd of the 6 Vikings Head Coaches to be promoted from within the team's coaching ranks but is the 1st Head Coach to have played for the Vikings.

NFL RE-ALIGNS — The 2002 season marked the re-alignment of the NFL as the League expanded to 32 teams when the Houston Texans joined as an expansion franchise. The NFL re-aligned into 8 divisions of 4 teams each. The Vikings moved into the newly-formed NFC North after years in the NFC Central.

VIKINGS LEAD NFL IN RUSHING — The 2002 Vikings led the NFL in rushing for the first time in team history with 2,507 yards for the season, an average of 156.7 yards per game. Second-year RB Michael Bennett ranked 2nd in team history with 1,296 rushing yards and earned a berth in the Pro Bowl. The Vikings set team records for rushing TDs (26), average per carry (5.3) and total first downs (350). The team also established an NFL mark by becoming the 1st team to make a successful 2-point conversion to win a game when Daunte Culpepper scored on a 2-point run with :05 remaining in the game to give the Vikings a 32-31 win at New Orleans on December 15, 2002. Culpepper proved to be a dangerous runner himself in 2002, setting team records for attempts (106), yards (609) and rushing TDs (10) by a QB.

VIKINGS OFFENSE RANKS #1 — The 2003 Vikings became the 1st squad in franchise history to finish the season with the #1 ranked offense in the NFL, averaging 393.4 yards per game and scoring an average of 26.0 points per game.

ELLER ENSHRINED — On August 8, 2004, Carl Eller was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Eller, the Vikings career sacks leader, was a member of the vaunted Purple People Eaters defense.

CULPEPPER SHINES — Daunte Culpepper had the best season by a QB in Vikings history and one of the most impressive in NFL history. His 39 TD passes, 110.9 passer rating, 69.2 completion percentage and 4,717 yards were all team records and ranked among the NFL's all-time leaders. Culpepper earned his 3rd Pro Bowl berth in 5 seasons as a starter and led the team to an upset win over arch-rival Green Bay in the first round of the playoffs.

WILF FAMILY TAKES OWNERSHIP — An investment group led by brothers Zygi and Mark Wilf were unanimously approved as the new owners of the Vikings by their fellow NFL owners on May 25, 2005. The Wilfs, owners of a real estate development company in New Jersey, took ownership in mid-June from former owner Red McCombs, who had owned the club since 1998. Joining the Wilfs ownership group is cousin Leonard Wilf, Reggie Fowler, David Mandelbaum and Alan Landis.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS RING OF HONOR

Vikings owner Red McCombs started a new Vikings tradition in his first season owning the team in 1998 — the Vikings Ring of Honor. The Ring of Honor recognizes Vikings legends for their contributions to the success of the team on and off the field. Members of the Ring of Honor are recognized with a banner on the facade of the Metrodome's upper deck, forever living in Vikings lore.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 23 seasons (1982-2004) at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 44-year history. Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota and the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minnesota. On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over the next 22 years the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. December 20, 1981, marked the last game ever played at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year. The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 64,121. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens, 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings. In 23 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have a 123-66 record, which includes a 6-4 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2005 season marks the Vikings' 24th campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, 3 seasons longer than the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, the 1992 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000 and 2003 and the 2001 NCAA Men's Final Four.

Metropolitan Stadium
First Vikings Regular Season Game: vs. Chicago (9/17/61), 37-13 Vikings win

2005 MIDWEST WIRELESS MINNESOTA VIKINGS TRAINING CAMP

2005 marks the 40th year that Greater Mankato plays host to the Minnesota Vikings Training Camp. In 2004, over 70,000 people visited Training Camp and enjoyed days full of practices and family fun in the Vikings Village. This years camp is scheduled for July 29-August 17, 2005 and is held on the campus of Minnesota State University, Mankato.

The team typically practices twice daily. A full schedule of practice dates and times is available at www.vikingstrainingcamp.com. Special events at Midwest Wireless Minnesota Vikings Training Camp this year include an Opening Night Celebration on July 29 with appearances from Vikings ownership, coaches and players along with a free concert. On July 30, after a full day of practices fans can enjoy the 40th Anniversary Homecoming Party in the Vikings Village featuring Vikings player and staff alumni and a retrospective, multi media presentation of the Vikings 40 years in Greater Mankato. An intra-squad team scrimmage will be held on Friday, August 5. Other special team practices include Tuesdays, August 9 and 16, when they will have "Live Thud" full-contact practices. All of these are evening events.

For more information on Midwest Wireless Minnesota Vikings Training Camp, visit www.vikingstrainingcamp.com.

VIKINGS PRESEASON TELEVISION

Brian Baldinger

Curt Menefee

This summer, don't miss the excitement as the Minnesota Vikings take on a rugged NFL pre-season schedule only on 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS KSTP-TV! Led by play-by-play announcer Curt Menefee and color announcer Brian Baldinger, 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS promises deep coverage as the Minnesota Vikings tune up for their regular season. Menefee and Baldinger are broadcast veterans, having been part of the FOX NFL broadcasting team for years.

Menefee is entering his 9th season calling NFL games on FOX as well as NFL Europe. Menefee began his NFL experience as a sideline reporter for FOX in 1997. One of New York's most popular sportscasters, Menefee won the 1996 Associated Press Award for Best Sports Reporter in New York. Prior to the move to the Big Apple, Menefee was a sports director and weeknight anchor at a pair of stations in Dallas along with hosting a daily 2-hour sports show on The Ticket sports radio. Menefee also has experience at stations in Jacksonville, Madison and Des Moines. He is a graduate of Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Baldinger is in his 9th season as an analyst for NFL on FOX and has covered NFL Europe action during that time as well. A former offensive lineman with the Dallas Cowboys and Philadelphia Eagles, Baldinger has a unique perspective on preseason NFL action. Signed by Dallas as an undrafted rookie in 1982 he battled his way onto the Cowboys roster. Baldinger was the lone rookie free agent from a pool of 107 rookies that earned a roster spot in 1982. He went on to play for Dallas from 1982-84 and again from '86-87. From 1988-91 Baldinger played for the Colts, earning their Most Valuable Lineman award in 1991 before finishing his playing career with the Eagles in 1992-93. A 1982 graduate of Duke, Baldinger made the transition from TE to offensive line and transferred to the Blue Devils from Nassau (NY) Community College.

Starting with the first regular season game on September 11th, 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS and the Vikings present Vikings GameDay, the official weekly pregame show at 10:30 a.m. each Sunday. Vikings GameDay takes an inside look at the upcoming games from the players, coaches and the fans point of view. It's the best way to get up close and inside the Vikings on game day! Fans can participate in the audience as all shows are taped at the Mall of America (9/7, 9/15, 9/22, 9/29, 10/6, 10/13, 10/20, 10/27, 11/3, 11/10, 11,17, 11/23, 12/1, 12/8, 12/15, 12/22, 12/29). Don't miss Vikings GameDay, Sundays at 10:30 a.m., starting September 11th on 5 EYEWITNESS NEWS.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS RADIO NETWORK

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his fourth season as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen again in the radio booth handling the color commentary for the 2005 Vikings season will be former Vikings TE Joe Senser.

Allen served as the Vikings Internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

The role will be familiar for Senser, who handled Vikings color commentary in 1993-94 and since 2001. Senser played for the Vikings from 1979-84. Senser ranks 3rd in Vikings history among tight ends for catches (165), TDs (16) and earned a berth in the Pro Bowl following the 1981 season.

Joining Allen and Senser again from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391), punts inside the 20 (154) and ranks 3rd in career average (40.8 yards per punt).

Joe Senser, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-AM (1130) and KOOL 108 (107.9 FM) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.

WINTER PARK - VIKINGS HEADQUARTERS

Dedicated in 1981, the Vikings Winter Park headquarters and training facility at 9520 Viking Drive in Eden Prairie, MN, have evolved with the times and the face of professional football. Named for former Vikings owner Max Winter, the Winter Park facility sits at the intersection of Highways 494 and 169 on Viking Drive in Eden Prairie.

Housed in the facility are the teams executive offices, coaches offices and all elements of the team's football operation including the Vikings locker room, practice fields, weight rooms, meeting rooms, athletic training facilities and cafeteria. The 3,000 square foot Vikings strength training facility features state of the art weight lifting and cardiovascular machines. The outdoor facilities include two 100-yard natural grass practice fields and a 50-yard turf field. The newest addition to the facility is a 100-yard indoor practice field that stands 90 feet tall at its apex. Built with the dual role of housing the NFC Champion Washington Redskins during Super Bowl XXV week preparations, the fieldhouse is regularly used by the team for practices and has been useful for community events and charitable endeavors.

The Vikings sales and marketing departments are located directly across the street from Winter Park at Olympic Place, 7825 Washington Avenue, Suite 700, Bloomington, MN and can be contacted at 952-918-8500. The Vikings ticket office is at the Metrodome, 500 11th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN, and can be contacted at 612-338-4537.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS SPECIAL EVENTS

Following another summer in Mankato, thoughts of footballs in the air are the focus of the 2005 Kickoff Gala, scheduled for September 8, 2005 at the Minneapolis Convention Center as the team gears up for the much-anticipated opener against Tampa Bay on September 11. The Kickoff Gala gives Vikings fans an up close and personal look at the team and commentary from Head Coach Mike Tice and team leaders as the final roster develops and all eyes focus on the start of the season.

The successful Minnesota Vikings Football Workshop will again be held at the Vikings Winter Park headquarters this season. Scheduled for November 5, 2005, the event will be open to all fans and feature presentations by Vikings coaches and players designed to provide insight into football from the pros. The event has gained popularity each season since its first installment with the Vikings in 1997.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional.

The Ed Block Courage Award has become one of the most prestigious awards a player can receive because no other national football award is chosen solely by a vote of his peers. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide—

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.
